WELCOME TO GRAZ!

I am glad that you chose Graz as your new home! Graz is an attractive and cosmopolitan city of culture and education in which people of 160 different nations live. More than 40,000 children and young adults attend the various Graz schools, and 55,000 students are studying at the universities of Graz. Graz devotes considerable space to culture in all its diversity. Practically the entire Inner City as well as the historical castle Schloss Eggenberg have been declared UNESCO World Heritage Site. Our international architecture scene was in part responsible for the fact that as of April 2011 our city has become a “City of Design.” We attach great importance to the fact that all people living in Graz should be given equal opportunity to contribute their experience, ideas and views but also be committed to the well-being of others. My personal wish as the Mayor is that Graz should remain the city with the highest quality of life in Austria! This includes the peaceful coexistence of all citizens of Graz. And this is why Graz is proud to be UNO-City of Human Rights and why we actively promote interreligious dialogue, for instance, through the Interreligious Council of the City of Graz. The Interreligious Council consists of delegates of the state-recognized denominations. Please, make a personal effort to reach out and get into a dialogue with the people surrounding you, in your residential environment in Graz! Or as we would casually say in Graz: “Through conversation people discover common interests and develop friendships.” This “New in Graz” Package provides information about our city so that you will quickly feel at home in Graz. I sincerely hope that you will find friends in our city and that you will ultimately become a true „Grazer/Grazerin“!

Yours sincerely,
Mag. Siegfried Nagl
Mayor of Graz
DEAR NEW CITIZEN OF GRAZ,

A good host introduces his/her guests to the new and unfamiliar environment, provides an orientation and familiarizes them with the house rules, and shows them the sights and points of interest. Although we cannot personally introduce all newcomers to Graz as their new living environment, we would still like to be of help by offering you a coupon for a city tour and, in this way, introduce you to our city. The other contents of the "New in Graz"-Box serve to familiarize you with the Styrian capital. You will find out that Graz has an excellent infrastructure and is rightly praised for the high quality of life it offers to its residents. Representing the city administration, I can assure you that we contribute to your well-being by being strongly committed to continuously improving our services. For our efforts we have received the Austrian Administration Award and many other awards. I hope that we always meet our high expectations and that you, too, will perceive your communications with the municipal authorities and services as positive and enjoyable.

At this point I simply wish for you to feel welcome in Graz and hope that you will have the chance to discover and experience the many beautiful parts and aspects of our city. Maybe this will change your perception of the "Murtropolis" Graz from a mere place of residence to a place you call home.

Yours,

Mag. Martin Haidvogl
Director of the Municipal authorities

NEW IN GRAZ

DEAR NEW CITIZEN OF GRAZ,

You have come to live in Graz and have received this "New in Graz" Package that you are holding in your hands. The information provided in the "New in Graz"-package and its contents serve the purpose of making things a little easier for you during the first period of living in Graz and getting familiar with the Styrian Capital. Inside this "New in Graz"-Bag you will find the following "goodies":

- The "New in Graz"-Brochure with a first selection of important information about living in Graz
- Folder on various topics such as "recycling"
- A coupon for a guided city tour of Graz
- A city map of Graz
- A pen
- An USB-stick on which you will find the electronic version of the "New in Graz"-Brochure in several languages. In this way you can as well read the brochure on your computer.

In the "New in Graz" Brochure we have compiled useful information for you in 14 thematic chapters. Within the chapters you will find small information boxes providing you with the contact data of the mentioned authorities, institutions, organizations, etc. Some of the information is already mentioned in the texts – two is better than none.

Some information would thematically fit in two chapters; however, it is discussed extensively in one chapter only, whereas a "note" will refer you to the respective chapter. Under "information" you will find useful links and internet addresses. And in the annex we have listed contact data in a city map for your convenience and information. We hope that the "New in Graz"-Package will be of use to you, and we wish you a happy life in our beautiful city! We do not lay any claim to completeness – with all questions, wishes, ideas, complaints and suggestions for improvement and particularly for praise, please turn to the Integration Office of the City of Graz (Integrationsreferat).

We have tried to always provide you with the latest information. However, as laws, fees, contact information, open hours, etc. often are subject to change, we advise you to double-check by calling the respective services beforehand.

Your team of the Integration Office

EASY-TO-UNDERSTAND INFORMATION FOR RESIDENTS OF GRAZ

We want people who have recently moved to Graz to feel at home and find their way around as quickly as possible. Brief and clearly arranged information about their new home city helps here. Particularly for people who do not yet speak German that well, specific information in easy-to-understand German is ideal.

And from a very general perspective, information for all Graz residents that is as barrier-free as possible is a major concern for us in the Graz municipal administration. Because citizens’ satisfaction is very important to us.

INFORMATION ON THE SMARTPHONE

This brochure has therefore now been translated into an easy-to-understand language for the first time and in collaboration with capito Graz. Furthermore, with the capito app, the information is also available directly on the smartphone and in different language levels. The language levels correspond to a very easy-to-understand language (A1) and an easy-to-understand language (A2). capito QR codes are provided in the table of contents and in the individual chapters. By scanning these QR codes with the capito app, the user can access the easy-to-understand versions directly. Also included in the app: an English translation and a read-aloud function.

HOW DO I LOAD THE CAPITO APP

The capito app is available free of charge in the App Store and in the Google Play Store.

1. Open the App Store or the Google Play Store.
2. Enter “capito” in the search field.
3. Select “capito – Leicht Lesen” (“Easy to read”).
4. Tap on “Install”.
5. When you have downloaded the app, the symbol for the capito app is displayed on your mobile phone.
6. To open it, tap on the symbol. The capito app then shows you the next steps.

INFORMATION ON THE COMPUTER

The easy-to-understand information is of course not only available on the smartphone but also on the computer.

Graz is the Provincial Capital of Styria and the second largest city in Austria. The 328,276 inhabitants of Graz (Date: 1.1.2019) come from ca. 160 countries. The first residents settled about 5,000 years ago between the river Mur and the Schlossberg, a steep rock located in the heart of the city. The name Graz was first chartered in history in the year 1128. The colors of the city are white and green. Its coat of arms is green and shows a silver panther which is walking upright. The City of Graz is governed by its Mayor, the City Parliament (48 members) and the City Council (7 City Councilors). The elections are held every 5 years. The elected members of the City Parliament in turn elect the City Councilors, the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor. The City Hall located on the main square is the seat of the City Government. The city is administered by the municipal authorities (Magistrat Graz) with about 3,000 employees. The “Holding Graz” is the municipal utilities company of the City of Graz. With another 4,000 employees the Holding Graz is in charge of supplying important services such as electricity, water, public transport, garbage collection, sewage system, etc.

Graz is a center of culture, science and technology; a city of gentle mobility and “short distances.” The historic Old Town and the castle “Schloss Eggenberg” are part of the UNESCO–World Heritage. In 2001 Graz as the first city in Europe was awarded the title “City of Human Rights”. In 2003 Graz was the Cultural Capital of Europe; in 2011 Graz was made “City of Design”. Furthermore, Graz is a “Fair-Trade-Community,” an “Eco-City” and the first “Capital of Culinary Delights” in Austria. The city has four Universities, two Universities of Applied Sciences and two Teacher Training colleges. A total of about 55,000 students are studying in Graz.

FURTHER FACTS AND FIGURES:
- Population in total: 328,276, of which 246,121 of Austrian citizenship, 45,074 from EU-member states, 37,081 from countries outside the European Union.

- Length of the cycle path network: ca. 120 kilometers (75.76 mi)
- Length of the tram network: 66 kilometers
- Businesses: about 10,000 companies
- Employees: about 172,000 people as of January, 2013.
NEW IN GRAZ

In this chapter you will find a comprehensive overview of the first important things which you will have to take care of after having arrived in Graz. You will learn which authorities you will have to turn to in order to get e.g. a passport, an ID-card, etc. The staff members of the seven Service Centers for citizens (BürgerInnen-Servicestellen) are your contact persons.

REGISTERING YOUR RESIDENCE

If you move to Graz, you need to register within three days of your arrival. You have to register your main place of residence, if you have chosen to live in Graz. The legal obligation to register also applies to all of your family members who have moved to Graz with you. Before registering, you have to cancel your registration at your former place of residence (within three days before or after moving). You can do both at the same time. In case you want to change your existing registration in Graz from secondary residence to main residence, you may do so within the period of one month. Registration is free of charge. In case you violate the obligation to register, you commit an administrative offense. You may register, cancel your registration or change your registration at any of the Service Centers for citizens.

The Service Centers are in charge of:
• registration,
• reports of losses and finds,
• submission of applications concerning child care,
• permits to long-term parking in the designated “Blue and Green Parking zones,”
• registration of dogs,
• “Lebensbestätigung” issuing of various certificates and confirmations,
• activation of mobile phone signatures.

CONFIRMATION OF REGISTRATION

Citizens of EEA countries (all EU-Member States as well as Iceland, Norway and Liechtenstein) and citizens of Switzerland do not need a visa and may stay in Austria freely for a period of three months. If they plan to stay longer than three months, they have to place an application for a confirmation of registration (Anmeldebescheinigung) as a confirmation of their right of residence within four months after the date of their arrival. After five years of permanent residence in Austria, citizens of EEA countries may apply for a permanent residence confirmation (Bescheinigung des Daueraufenthalts). Applications may be placed at the authority in charge: Department 3 of the Styrian Government (Amt der Steiermärkischen Landesregierung).

ISSUANCE OF A PASSPORT
You can get a passport at the Service Center of the City of Graz in the Council Office (Amtshaus), Schmiedgasse 26, 8011 Graz, Tel. +43 316 872-5252. The costs: 75.90 Euro. Passport validity: 10 years. At graz.at/reisepass you can conveniently book your online appointment and in this way avoid standing in line.

In principle you may apply for a new passport with any passport office at the respective authority, irrespective of your place of main residence in Austria. The so-called “high security passport” is printed by the Austrian State Printers and will be sent to you within five days after the submission of the application. You will receive an RB-letter (which has to be signed for but can be received by a representative, such as a work colleague at the working place, signing in your name, too. In case nobody can confirm the receipt of the RB-letter with his/her signature, you will receive a yellow notice slip, explaining that the letter has been taken to your post office where you can collect it personally).

You can find out which documents are required for the passport application by calling the Service Center at Tel. +43 316 872-5252. If you need a certificate of citizenship for your passport application, you can get it at the same time at the Service Center at the department of Civil Status- and Citizenship.

If you need your passport as fast as possible, you may apply for an express-passport (Express-Pass) (posted to you within 3 working days, cost is 100 Euro) or even a one-day-express-passport (Ein-Tages-Express-Pass, posted by the next working day, cost is 220 Euro); both are valid for ten years as well.

At the Graz airport you can apply for an emergency passport (Notpass) which, however, is valid only for a period of six months. Attention: Some countries will not allow entry with an emergency passport!

Children in Austria are required to have a passport of their own, if the child is an Austrian citizen. It costs 30 Euro (up to the 12th birthday of the child; from then on 75.90 Euro). Within the child’s first two years of life the initial application of a passport is free of charge, if the child is of Austrian citizenship (Attention: A 3-day express passport costs 45 Euro, a one-day-express-passport costs 16.5 Euro. After a child’s 12th birthday a three-day express passport costs 100 Euro, a one-day-express passport costs 220 Euro).

Open hours of the Service Center: Monday, from 7AM to 6 PM and Tuesday through Friday, from 7 AM to 1 PM.

ISSUANCE OF AN ID CARD
The ID card in the practical credit-card size makes it easier for you to identify yourself; you don’t always have to carry your passport with you. Furthermore, the ID card is recognized as a valid travel document in 32 European countries. You may also apply for the ID card at the Service Centers of the City of Graz in the Council Office (Amtshaus), Schmiedgasse 26, 8011 Graz, Tel. +43 316 872-5252, 5254. It costs 61.50 Euro. For a child up to the age of 16, it costs 26.30 Euro. Validity of the ID card: 10 years. The issuance process takes up to two weeks. For the ID card the same rule applies as for the birth certificate: Within the child’s first two years the initial application of a passport is free of charge, if the child is of Austrian citizenship. At graz.at/reisepass you can conveniently book your online appointment and in this way avoid standing in line.

ISSUANCE OF A CERTIFICATE OF CITIZENSHIP
The Civil Registry Office (BürgerInnenamt), Passport- and Document Services is in charge of issuing citizenship certificates for Austrian citizens. You may also apply for the certificate of citizenship for a subsequent passport application, the same department will handle the passport application process.

The costs of a citizenship certificate is 48.50 Euro. In addition you may be charged additional fees for other necessary documents or translations of documents. For a child the issuance of a citizenship certificate is free of charge, if the application was placed during the child’s first two years of life and the child is an Austrian citizen (with the exception of the citizenship certificate which is subject to charge because it was applied for after the child was granted the citizenship in a citizenship application procedure).

If you need the citizenship certificate for a subsequent passport application, the same department will handle the passport application process.
ISSUANCE OF A BIRTH CERTIFICATE
The first birth certificate issued directly after the birth is free of charge. A subsequent issuance of a birth certificate for a child born in Graz is possible (each notarial document costs 9.30 Euro [Current rates as of Jan. 1, 2017]).

GENERAL COMPULSORY SCHOOLING
All children who are living in Austria for at least a semester are required to attend school. Compulsory schooling starts in the year the child turns 6 and lasts 9 school years. The requirement of compulsory schooling is fulfilled after having attended the following schools:

During the first four years:
• Primary school (Volksschule)
• 5th to 8th grade: New middle school,” (Neue Mittelschule), high school (AHS)
• In 9th grade: Pre-vocational polytechnic course (Polytechnische Schule), continuation of secondary (vocational) school, or high school.
• Almost all schools offer after school day care services (subject to costs).

VEHICLES/DRIVER’S LICENSE
In Austria compulsory insurance applies to all motorized vehicles (such as cars, trucks, motor cycles, motor bicycles). In order to drive you have to take out liability insurance with an insurance company. Only then your vehicle can be approved for public traffic (registration with the respective authorities). After having paid the required fees, you will receive the license plates and the motor vehicle assessment sticker (“Pickerl”). Your insurance agent can take care of the registration of your car and a change of registration respectively and will give you the license plates after the registration process is completed. You are, of course, welcome to register your car/ motorcycle personally with your insurance or any other admission office. You may obtain information on all documents necessary for vehicle registration right there. In order to drive on Austrian highways (Autobahn), you need a valid motorway toll vignette. The vignette has to be applied to the inside of the windshield of your car in a clearly visible way. (It can be bought at automobile clubs, post offices, gas stations and tobacco stores). There are three different kinds: validity of 10 days, 2 months or one year. In Austria the law requires the driver and all passengers of a car to wear a seat belt! Children under the age of 14, who are smaller than 4.9 ft (1.5 m), have to be seated in a child seat adequate to their height and weight.

TIP
Find more info on the driver’s license in chapter „Traffic & Transport”. Further info on the above mentioned topics: help.gv.at.

OBLIGATION TO REGISTER YOUR PLACE OF RESIDENCE
If you move to Austria, or if you move within Austria, you need to register your new place of residence with the respective authority within three days of your arrival. You can find more information on this topic in the chapter “New in Graz.”

HOW TO FIND AN APARTMENT
You can rent an apartment from:
• Housing associations
• Real estate agents
• Private people renting or selling a home

The best advice we can give you is to read the housing advertisements in the daily newspapers (weekend-editions), weekly journals and/or free newspapers. There are also special magazines with housing advertisements only. There are, of course, unlimited housing advertisements on the internet.

Attention: Real estate agents charge a fee for their services (mostly the dual monthly gross rent or a certain percentage of the selling price). Please, be advised to have your rent- or purchase contract checked by a professional in the field of law such as a lawyer, the Renters’ Association (Mietervereinigung), the Chamber of Labor (Arbeiterkammer) or the Housing Information Center of the City of Graz (Wohnungsinformationsstelle).

In any case you should ask which costs are already included in the price of rent: the so called operating costs (Betriebskosten) for services such as electricity, heating, trash collection, house maintenance and general cleaning can enormously increase the rent charged. By law a rent contract has to be signed for a minimum period of three years. The renter, however, may cancel the contract after a minimum period of one year (Attention: at three months notice). The rent contract may be cancelled by mutual agreement at any time.

COUNCIL FLATS
If you fulfill certain requirements, you may apply for one of the ca. 11,000 council flats at the Department of Housing Affairs (Wohnungsamt). These requirements you can find at graz.at/wohnen

You can make a written application, by completing an application form or apply online (There are a variety of documents which need to be added to your application). Unfortunately there are only very few available council flats, and this is why immediate offers are not to be expected (with the exception of the „council flats without waiting periods“ at graz.at/wohnen). The minimum waiting period currently is at nine to twelve months for 1-, 2- and 3- person households. 4- and more person households have to expect a waiting period of 18–24 months.

SUPPLEMENTARY RENT COMPENSATION
Tenants of a council flat may apply for supplementary rent compensation if they have to spend more than 33 percent of their gross household income on rent, operational- and heating costs. For more information see ww.graz.at/wohnen.

HOUSING INFORMATION CENTER OF THE CITY OF GRAZ (WOIST)
WOIST offers counselling free of charge, unbiased and without prior appointment on the topics of Rental Law, apartment ownership, Estate Agency Law, finding an apartment or rent subsidies etc. Simply bring all relevant documents with you, please!

LIVING TOGETHER PEACEFULLY

To be new in a city requires you to adapt to the new situation and make some changes in your life style. As a new tenant or as the new owner of an apartment, you, too, need to adapt to the customs and common practice of the apartment building you are living in. Please note that most apartment buildings have house rules (they usually are posted in the staircase of the building). Please abide by these house rules. Introduce yourself to your new neighbors when moving in- don’t worry about language skills, your neighbors will appreciate the gesture. Please note that all activities in the apartment, in the garden or the court yard which generate loud noise (such as hammering, sawing, lawn mowing) as well as loud music are not allowed Monday through Friday, from 7 PM to 7 AM, Saturdays also from noon to 3 PM and on Sundays and holidays all day long. Please respect the peace at night from 10 PM to 7 AM. If you are having a party in your apartment or in your courtyard or garden, please, be so kind as to inform your neighbors in advance. Avoid having a BBQ on your balcony (because of the heavy smoke). Please, do not park your bicycles, strollers, etc. in the staircase. Separate your trash and use the respective trash cans (have a look at the information in paragraph Garbage Management).

CONFLICT MEDIATION IN HOUSING ESTATES

In order to successfully solve conflicts in housing estates in a peaceful and satisfactory way, you may turn to the Peace Office of the City of Graz and its "Community Mediation Service - Nabas (Nachbarschaftsservice)". This service supports and assists residents of... housing estates in finding solutions to problems resulting from disputes between neighbors. The Community Mediation team, consisting of four professional mediators is committed to supporting you. The team helps to clarify the circumstances of the conflict in an unbiased way, gives legal information, mediates between the conflicting parties and refers them to other authorities, if necessary. You can call the “Conflict- Hotline” at Tel. +43 316 872-2180 Monday through Thursday from 8 AM to 3 PM and Friday from 8 AM to 12 noon.

CHECKLIST FOR MOVING HOUSE
On the following two pages you can find an extensive list of all the tasks and bureaucratic procedures that you need to consider and take care of when organizing your moving to a new apartment.

SAVING ENERGY
Cutting down on electricity and heating consumption spares your budget! Opting for district heating (in part depending on your income level) and solar energy system solutions is subsidized by the City of Graz. You can find detailed information on environment friendly alternative energy options online at oekostadt.graz.at and also at the Energy Counseling Service (Energieberatung), Tel. +43 316 872-4388. More information on the topic of district heating can be found at the website of Energy Graz (Energie Graz) online at: energiegraz.at or at Tel. +43 316 80 57-9090.

GARBAGE MANAGEMENT
Garbage management is regulated by law in Austria. The focus is placed on garbage prevention. The responsible handling of garbage is an essential contribution to the protection of the environment and to sustaining natural resources. In the city of Graz you will find garbage cans put up for the collection of the following types of garbage:

- Residual waste (black garbage can; for broken dishes, broken glass, rubbish, cat litter, bones, dirty paper, diapers, broken toys, vacuum cleaner bags, etc.)
- Organic Waste (brown garbage can; for vegetable- and fruit waste, dry foods, solid food leftovers, flowers, plants, cut grass, etc.)
- Paper (red garbage can; for paper, cardboard, newspapers, magazines, books, paper files, etc.)
- Glass packaging (green garbage can; for glass, separate the clear from the colored glass)

- Light packaging material (yellow garbage can; for all packaging made of plastic and composite material, textile material, Styrofoam, wood, disposable tableware, etc.)
- Metal packaging (blue garbage can; beverage- and food cans, pet-food cans, paint cans and metal cover fials, etc.).

Bulky garbage such as old mattresses, furniture, bicycles, electric appliances and toxic substances (such as waste oil, batteries, etc.) have to be disposed of at the Recycling Center of the Holding (Sturzplatz). The cost per entrance is: 4 Euro; load of up to 200 kg free of charge. Toxic waste can also be taken to the Toxic Waste Express (Giftmüllexpress) of the Holding Graz Waste Services (a mobile collection center for toxic waste). Information on dates and the Toxic Waste Express at Tel. +43 316 872-4388. Further delivery points are the fire at the fire brigade on Lendplatz, the fire brigade station Dietrichsteinplatz, Monday through Friday, from 8 AM to 5 PM, Saturday from 8 AM to 2 PM. For more detailed information on garbage prevention, -separation and -disposal you can call the Garbage- and Environment Counseling Service of the City of Graz (Abfall- und Umweltberatung) oekostadt.graz.at. There the “Garbage Separation Leaflets” are available for download in 19 languages.

This checklist is meant to be a guideline to make moving easier and does not claim to be complete. Information taken from the website help.gv.at. (Date 20.09.2016)
The Austrian labor market is based on many laws. The most important rules and regulations regarding the Austrian labor market are:

UNLIMITED ACCESS TO THE AUSTRIAN LABOR MARKET:
- All women and men of Austrian citizenship, their spouses and children, as long as they are entitled to residence under the Settlement and Residence Act (Niederlassungs- und Aufenthaltsgesetz).
- All citizens of the following countries: Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Finland, France, Greece, Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxemburg, Malta, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Spain, Cyprus and Switzerland.

EXEMPT FROM THE AUSTRIAN FOREIGNERS’ EMPLOYMENT ACT ARE:
Refugees recognized under the Geneva Refugee Convention, migrants in the diplomatic or consular service as well as lecturers and researchers in universities. A requirement for taking up gainful employment in Austria is a valid certificate of residence. In addition to the settlement permit or the temporary residence permit, one needs an employment permit (Arbeitsgenehmigung). This can be a pre-employment permit followed by an employment permit, an employment permit alone or a license as a key staff member. The employer has to apply for the pre-employment and employment permit and – jointly with the foreign employee – for the employment permit as a key staff member.

THE RED-WHITE-RED CARD
The Red-White-Red work permit card can be issued to:
- Highly qualified migrants
- Skilled migrants in scarce occupations (defined according to demand)
- Other highly qualified key staff members
- Foreign graduates
Experts and qualified staff from Non-EU Member States can obtain permanent residence and work in Austria through the Red-White-Red Card. However, for the migration of citizens from Non-EU Member States to Austria, specific criteria in regard to the level of occupational qualification, work experience, age, level of German and English language skills, prospective job offers and minimum income levels are assessed on a points-based system.

THE RED-WHITE-RED-CARD PLUS
It entitles its holders to right of permanent residence and unlimited access to the labor market. Holders of the RWR-Card who in the period of 12 months have been employed for at least 10 months, may apply for an upgrade to the RWR-Card Plus. Key staff members and highly skilled employees holding a RWR-Card may also apply for residents’ permits for their (immediate) family members. The family members then are eligible to a RWR-Card Plus with unlimited access to the labor market in Austria.

„PERMANENT RESIDENCE STATUS EU“
Those who have held a residence permit for Austria for a minimum of five years, may apply for a „Permanent Residence EU“. This status entitles its holders to permanent residence and unlimited labor market access in Austria. For this residence title applicants are required to prove advanced German language skills (certificate of B1 level).

CINT – CLUB INTERNATIONAL
As a bilingual competence- and service center for international key workers, specialists and their families, the CLUB INTERNATIONAL supports its member companies and contributes to the internationalization of Styria as a business location.

FINDING A JOB

PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT SERVICE (AMS)
The Austrian Public Employment Service (Arbeitsmarktservice AMS) is a public provider of labor market related services and as such is responsible for counseling in the field of work, assisting jobseekers as well as administration and paying unemployment insurance benefits. The Careers Information Center of the AMS provides information on career and education opportunities, job offers as well as tips and tricks for the right choice of career.

If you are looking for work or are still in employment, but facing unemployment, do not hesitate to turn for counseling and assistance to the regional AMS service center competent for your place of residence as soon as possible. More detailed and important information can be found at ams.at

NEWSPAPERS / UNSOLICITED JOB APPLICATIONS
Most newspapers feature career sections with a variety of job offers. You can always send your application on your own initiative to a company in which you would like to be employed.

ONLINE- JOB PLATFORMS
The numerous online job listing platforms assume more and more importance in finding a job. Europe-Wide Job Search

REPRESENTATION OF THE INTERESTS OF EMPLOYEES

CHAMBER OF LABOR (ARBEITERKAMMER):
The Chamber of Labor represents the interests of employees and consumers in Austria and provides information and advice on worker- and consumer protection.

LABOR UNION (GEWERKSCHAFT)
The Austrian Federation of Trade Unions (Österreichische Gewerkschaftsbund ÖGB) is an umbrella organization of various smaller craft unions (such as Public Service, Building-, Wood- or Private Sector unions). It represents the interests of workers and employees, but also of those retired, unemployed or still in training. The ÖGB also has a function in the negotiation of new laws and bills concerning labor issues as well as collective agreements (Kollektivverträge). The monthly membership fee is 1% of the gross income. For apprentices, pupils, students, unemployed, etc. special agreements are in effect. More detailed information can be found at oegb.at.

WORKS COUNCIL (BETRIEBSRAT)
In any company of at least 5 eligible employees (irrespective of their citizenship status) a works council may be elected. The works council represents the interests of the employees at company level with respect to their employers. A works council levy which serves to cover the costs of representation is deducted automatically from the employees’ salaries. This levy must not exceed 0.5 % of the gross income. Staff Representatives (Personalvertretung): In the public sector, staff representatives take the place of works councils.

RECOGNITION OF PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS
For skilled workers from foreign countries the recognition of qualifications acquired abroad plays an important role when entering the Austrian labor market. In order to better assist and support clients in the challenging validation and recognition process, different service centers have been established. These service centers offer multilingual and free of charge counseling on the recognition of professional qualifications to migrants living in Austria.

In Graz the organization ZEBRA with its service center AST (Anlaufstelle) provides information on recognition processes of qualifications and professions obtained abroad. Further information also at: berufsanerkennung.at, aais.at, asbb.at, anlaufstelle-anerkennung.at, bmwf.gv.at/startseite/studierende/academic_mobility/enic_naric_austria

SELF-EMPLOYMENT/REGISTERING A BUSINESS
If you want to become self-employed in Austria, you can get counseling provided by the Chamber of Commerce (Wirtschaftskammer). In Austria you may only operate a business with a valid business license. The extract of the trade register serves as evidence of the business license. You will have to decide which will be the ideal legal structure for your business, clarify whether you need a business- or an operating license, find out how to finance your business investments, etc.

Which requirements you need to fulfill and which documents you need for registering a business can be found out at the municipal Office for Commerce and Trade Procedures (Referat Gewerbeverfahren) of the Service Center for Citizens Graz as well as at the Consultancy Service for Start-Ups at the Chamber of Commerce Steiermark (gruenderservice.at).

EMPLOYMENT OF PUPILS, STUDENTS AND YOUNG ADULTS

Children and young adults in Austria enjoy a high level of protection and this is why children are not allowed to work. Young adults, however, may learn a profession after having completed at least nine years of compulsory schooling. Young adults who are recognized refugees and who want to learn a profession do not need any special permit. In Austria men and women have equal right to education and vocational training and exercising a profession. Women and girls are allowed to train in technical and manual professions and to practice them. Many students and pupils would like to earn their own money during their training. Detailed information on such possibilities can be obtained at the AMS (see page 28 for contact data).

REINTEGRATION INTO THE LABOR MARKET

The bbs – Employment Services Steiermark inter-connects non-profit organizations all over Styria which are dedicated to reintegrate long-term unemployed persons and/or members of difficult-to-place social groups into the labor market.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

When you are employed by a company, your employer is obligated to give you a contract of employment as documentary evidence and proof of your rightful employment. It has to state the name and address of the employer and the employee, the date of beginning of the employment, the duration of the notice period, the amount of income, the date on which the salary has to be paid, the amount of working hours per week as well as the amount of vacation time per year. Independent contractors are entitled to an independent contractor agreement. Contracts of apprenticeship always have to be concluded in writing. Contracts of employment can be temporary or open-ended.

INSURANCE

Prior to the commencement of work, employers are obliged to sign up their employees with the social insurance and pay employers’ insurance premiums. As employee you are entitled to a copy of the registration. Under the social insurance you are covered by health-, accident-, pension- and unemployment insurance and you will receive the E-Card from your regional insurance fund. With the E-Card you have access to all health insurance benefits. Self-employed women and men have to sign up the Social Insurance Company for Trade and Commerce (Sozialversicherungsanstalt für Gewerbliche Wirtschaft). This compulsory insurance as well includes pension-, health-, and accident insurance as well as a self-employed pension scheme. For more information see chapter “Health Care.”

WORKING HOURS, VACATION

In Austria the standard working hours for full time employment are 8 hours per day and 40 hours per week. Apart from full time employment, there are many other schemes of working time such as part-time-, marginal- or seasonal employment contracts. Employees are entitled to a minimum of 25 working days of vacation per year. This also applies to parttime or marginal contracts. There is no

TAXES

Anybody who has his/her legal residence in Austria has to pay tax on all income. In order to avoid double taxation from income gained abroad, the Double Taxation Convention (Doppelbesteuerungsabkommen) was agreed between EU- and EEA- Member States have to be income tax which is taken out of the gross salary by the employer and is paid directly to the tax authority. Through filing an employee tax assessment, one may reclaim over-paid taxes. Self-employed women and men pay income tax and have to file an income tax return. Based on the tax regulations of the year 2012, the tax-free base income is limited to 12,000 Euro per year for employees and 11,000 Euro per year for self-employed entrepreneurs.

NOTICE OF TERMINATION

With a notice of contractual termination the employer may dissolve a contract of indeterminate duration. Contracts of determinate duration may only be dissolved early, if the termination is mutually agreed on by both parties, the employer and the employee. Notice periods and termination dates are stated in your work contract or in the collective agreement applicable to you.
Graz is a “City of Short Distances”: You can run most errands on foot, especially in the inner city. In this way you not only save money, but also safeguard the environment and stay fit!

If you cannot walk or do not want to walk, you have the following options:

PUBLIC TRANSPORT – BUSES AND TRAMS
Graz has a tightly knit network of means of public transport- please see the Public transport- network map and the folder on ticket prices included in your “New in Graz”-Box. The “Graz Lines” are taking you by bus and tram to every corner of the city from 5AM to 12PM. On Friday and Saturday the busses of the “Nightline” will take you safely back home even after midnight. On the bus you may buy your 1 hour- or 24 hour-ticket (in cash) with the driver. In trams you may buy tickets valid 1 hour, 24 hours, 1 week or 1 month at the ticket machine (accepts coins, bills and bank cards). At the tobacco store you can buy tickets in advance: tickets valid for 1 hour, 24 hours, 1 week and multiple trip tickets. Tickets valid for 6 months or a full year may only be bought at the Mobility Center (Mobilitätszentrum) [see below]. The tickets cost the same, no matter whether you buy them on the bus, in the tram or at the tobacco store.

There are many different reduced ticket options: Eligible for reductions are pupils, students and apprentices as well as senior citizens (60 years and older depending on the income. Family pass holders may obtain tickets at reduced price; Graz residents may buy the „Graz ticket” at reduced price.

Students who register their main residence in Graz are granted a mobility check (Mobilitätsscheck) worth 30 to 40 Euro per semester. Information on any other requirements students have to meet in order to be eligible for the mobility check, where to apply for it and how to use it can be found online at graz.at – Traffic (Verkehr). More detailed information online at graz.at/mobilitaetsscheck.

BICYCLE RIDING
Graz has an excellent network of bicycle paths (about 120 km). The “Graz Bicycle Map” (Radkarte Graz) showing all bicycle paths and bicycle routes can be picked up free of charge at “Mobil Zentral”, Jakominstraße 1, at the Graz Tourist Center (Graz Tourismus), Herrengasse 16, at the Bicycle Station at the Central Train Station (Hauptbahnhof) and at the Department for Traffic Planning (Abteilung für Verkehrsplanung), Europaplatz 20. Tel. +43 316 872-2882, E-Mail verkehrsplanung@stadt.graz.at. At the Bicycle Station at Graz Central Train Station (south of the main entrance) you can leave your bicycle in a secured area or rent a bike to explore the city [Tel. +43 664 61 73 874, graz.at/radstation].

DRIVING
Driver’s License: in order to drive in Austria you need to hold a valid driver’s license. If your driver’s license was issued in an EU-member state or in an EEA-country, it is valid in Austria, too. You do have the option of having it reissued as Austrian driver’s license. If you are a third country national and you have registered your main residence in Austria, you have to have your driver’s license reissued within the period of six months. In the process you may have to take the practical driving test again. You may need a certified German translation of your driver’s license or an international driver’s license. For more detailed information, please, contact the Traffic Department at the Police Directorate Graz [Landespolizeidirektion].

TRAFFIC AND TRANSPORT

OBLIGATORY WEARING OF SEAT BELTS
In Austria the driver and all passengers have to fasten their seat belts-front and back seats. Children under the age of 14 and/or smaller than 1.5 meters (4.9 ft.) have to be seated in a child seat which is adequate to their height and weight.

PARKING
In Graz there are about 26,500 chargeable and designated parking spaces and zones on streets and squares, the so called “Blue Zone” (Blaue Zone) and “Green Zone” (Grüne Zone). Parking in the designated „Blue Zone” requires a parking ticket, Monday through Friday from 9 AM to 8 PM and Saturday from 9 AM to 1 PM, which has to be placed clearly visible on the dashboard of your car. At the Europaplatz, the parking area in front of the main train station, the parking fee has to be paid daily from 8AM to 10PM.

The „Blue Zone” extends fully across the inner city and is only marked at its limits with street signs; outside the core area it is marked street by street with the same street sign indicating the short-term parking zone. Blue markings on the road however, serve as guides, blue road markings however, serve as guides. The maximum parking limit generally is 3 hours with the exception of Europaplatz- 1 hour; Kaiser-Josef-Platz, Schlögelgasse and Lendplatz- 90 minutes. The „Green Zone” is as well marked with traffic signs and is in effect Monday through Friday, from 9AM to 8PM. There is no parking time limit, and in contrast to the „Blue Zone”, parking in the „Green Zone” is free of charge on Saturdays. In contrast to the Blue Zone, parking in the Green Zone is free of charge on Saturdays.

Parking tickets can be bought at the parking meter or via SMS with your cell phone (handyparken.graz.at). Owners of electrically powered vehicles may park free of charge if they have an official certificate.

Residents of Graz, companies, and employees based in Graz may purchase special parking permits which grant them long-term parking at a reasonable price within the „Blue Zone”. In the „Green Zone” (and only here) commuters may purchase monthly or even yearly tickets at a more attractive rate. You can get comprehensive information on „parking in Graz” online at parken.graz.at.

TICKETS FOR PUBLIC TRANSPORT: ONLINE & APP
Are you interested in buying your ticket for bus&tram easily and comfortably at the online store of the „Graz Lines”?!

From home, from the office or on the go: just a few clicks and you already have your ticket in hand! From the 3-day-ticket, the week- and month ticket options, the student ticket, the transerable 6-months and annual ticket to the annual „Graz ticket” for Graz residents.

In the online store you not only find those ticket options, you may also buy your ticket for all zones of the StyrianTransport Network. Ticket to your mobile phone? No problem! By installing the apps „Öffi-Ticket” of the Graz Lines as well as „BusBahnBim” of the Styrian Transport Network you carry your ticket with you on your mobiel smart phone wherever you go. Both apps can be downloaded at the Google Play Store (for Android) as well as the App Store (for IOS).

MARRIAGE
The first step to married life is putting up the marriage bans at the Civil Registry Office. Please, reserve an appointment for the registration at the Civil Registry Office of the Service Center for Citizens, Tel. +43 316 872-5140, 5143 to 5145. With your appointment to register the civil marriage, the place, date and procedure of your wedding and the future family name will be et und you will receive information on the relevant documents and the fees to be paid. As a foreigner marrying in Austria, the laws of your country apply to your marriage.

REGISTERED PARTNERSHIP
You may contract a registered partnership with a same-sex partner. You can book an appointment for the ceremony at the Service Center, Office of Civil Status and Citizenship (Bürger-Innenamt, Referat Personenstands- und Staatsbürgerchaftswesen), at: Tel.: +43 316 872-5171

PREGNANCY
If pregnant and in employment, you have to inform your employer about the pregnancy and the calculated date of birth. Eight weeks before and eight weeks after the birth of the child, you are obliged to take maternity leave. For the protection of the mother, all work is prohibited during this time. For the health and well-being of the child and the mother during pregnancy and after birth, the Mother-Child-Booklet (Mutter-Kind-Pass) is offered free of charge in Austria in conjunction with a medical examination program beginning during pregnancy and lasting up to the 5th year of the child’s life. The Mother-Child-Booklet may be obtained from the health care service that diagnosed your pregnancy. All women regardless of their status or citizenship are entitled to the Mother-Child-Booklet services. All medical examinations made by a doctor who has a contract with the regional health insurance are free of charge. In case you are not covered by health insurance, you can turn to the Styrian Regional Health Insurance Fund (GKK) and ask for a voucher confirming your eligibility for this health care service (Anspruchsbeleg). Taking all the required medical exams of the Mother-Child-Booklet is the basis for the eligibility to be granted child care benefits! In case of an unwanted pregnancy you can find advice and support at various counseling centers such as the Women’s Health Center (Frauengesundheitszentrum). See also chapter “Help in Emergency Situations and Acute Crisis.”

FOLLOWING THE BIRTH
After the birth some official paperwork at the respective authorities’ offices needs to be taken care of. The Civil Registry Office- Register of Birth offers you in this regard a unique service: if you have given birth at the Graz General Hospital (LKH) or in either one of the sanatoriums “Ragnitz” and “Leonhard” you may get your child’s birth certificate, confirmation form of the birth for the Regional Health Insurance Fund and residence registration done for you and delivered right to your bedside! If your main place of residence is Graz and you have given birth in the Graz General Hospital (LKH) you also can get the certificate of citizenship in the package free of charge. If you have given birth to your child in another hospital, you will have to take care of the following formalities:

• Birth Certificate: The birth certificate can be obtained at the respective local civil registry office. In Graz, the responsible authority is the Civil Registry Office of the City of Graz, Register of Birth. Please, call their service line and find out which documents you may need to obtain the birth certificate for your child. Tel.: +43 316 872-5161, E-Mail standesamt@stadt.graz.at, graz.at.

• Registration of the child’s place of residence: At the Service Center for citizens in the Council Office (Service Center im Amtshaus), Schmiedgasse 26, or in any of the Graz Service Centers (see also chapter “New in Graz”). Please, bring the following documents with you: Birth certificate of the child, filled-in residence registration form, ID-card of the person registering the child.

• Certificate of citizenship: At the Department of Civil Status- and Citizenship (Referat für Staatsbürgerschaftangelegenheiten), Tel.: +43 316 872-5185, 5187, 5188. A legitimate child automatically gets the Austrian citizenship by descent at birth, if at least one of his/her parents at the date of birth is an Austrian citizen. Illegitimate children automatically get the Austrian citizenship by descent, if their mother at the date of birth is an Austrian citizen. Depending on whether the child is legitimate or illegitimate, different documents will be needed to obtain the certificate of citizenship; therefore, please, call and ask beforehand!

• Registration with the National Health Insurance Fund: This is automatically taken care of by the civil registry office. Your child can be health insured under the mother and the father, if both parents are covered by health insurance. The child gets his/her own E-card and social security number.

• Passport: Children need a passport of their own if they travel abroad. The passport can be issued at the Service Center of the City of Graz located in the Council Office, Schmiedgasse 26. Please, call and get information on which documents you need to bring, Tel.: +43 316 872-5252. See also chapter “New in Graz”.

ANONYMOUS BIRTH/BABY HATCH
Mothers of newborns who are not capable of living with their children and want to give them away right after birth have two options:

• The anonymous birth at the hospital.

• To leave the child anonymously at a safe place: The baby hatch is located at the outside wall of the General Hospital (LKH), Auenbruggerplatz 18. The baby receives immediate medical attention and care and goes to live with foster parents as soon as possible. Info-Hotline: +43 800 83 83 83.
LIFE SITUATIONS & SOCIAL AFFAIRS

MATERNITY ALLOWANCE, CHILD CARE BENEFITS
During the four month period of obligatory maternity leave, mothers are entitled to the maternity allowance (Wochengeld). Parents may place their applications for child care allowance (Kinderbetreuungsgeld) on the day after the child’s birth at the earliest. Parents may choose from five different options regarding the child care benefits with 36 months as the maximum possible period of receiving those benefits. In order to be eligible for child care allowance, the prescribed Mother-Child Booklet medical examinations are required to be taken. Please, place your application for child care allowance with your social insurance provider.

FAMILY ALLOWANCE, TAX REDUCTION FOR CHILDREN
Irrespective of their employment and income parents have the right to family allowance for their children. The amount of the family allowance depends on the age of the child and the number of children in the family. For children with handicaps an increased family allowance is paid in addition to the family allowance. Once your child turns 18, further payments of family allowance are granted only under certain conditions. Please, place your application for family allowance with your social insurance provider.

REUSABLE DIAPERS’ CHECK
The Environment Department promotes the use of washable baby diapers with the „Reusable Diapers Check“ to the amount of 80 Euro per child. Details at: Tel.: +43 316 872-4304.

CHILD CARE
Detailed information on child care offers can be found in the chapter “Children and Young Adults.” For information on school and vocational education see chapter “Education.”

PLEASE NOTE:
In Styria your child has to attend a child care facility in the last year before starting primary school. The attendance during the compulsory child care year is free of charge for the parents up to a limit 30 hours of child care per week (6 hours a day). For more information call Tel. +43 316 877-2103.

PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
The City of Graz and many services respectively take the needs of persons with handicaps very seriously and are committed to the best possible support. (See also chapter “Non- Discrimination and Participation.”) The contact point for persons with handicaps is located at the Department of Social Affairs.

OFFICE FOR SOCIAL BENEFITS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
The Office for Social Benefits for People with Disabilities (Referat für Behindertenhilfe) is in charge of implementing the Styrian Law on Disabilities in Graz (Steiermärkisches Behindertengesetz-StBHG). The implementation includes all processes from the application to the notification of decisions on disability claims as well as the payment of benefits to the service providers or directly to the people with disabilities.

The services covered under the Law on Disability include:
• Financial assistance for the purchase of disabled aids and equipment
• And/or cost reimbursement for medical treatment, therapies and remedies;
• Financial assistance for nursing care or educational services;
• Financial assistance for mobile care services;
• Financial assistance for the care in a day care center for adults or assisted living options;
• Financial assistance for mobile care services;
• Financial monetary assistance.

Details on the conditions for application and the documents necessary for the application process can be obtained at the Office for Social Benefits for People with Disabilities.

The tasks of the Office for Social Benefits for People with Disabilities are to determine whether or not those who have placed an application to claim one or more services under the Law on Disabilities are eligible and if so to which extent and amount. The proceedings are concluded by means of a decision. Depending on the service applied for, the decision entitles the recipient to claim

HELP IN DIFFICULT TIMES OF LIFE

People, who cannot afford the basic costs of life through their own efforts, may place an application for financial support during difficult life situations at the Social Welfare Department in order to be able to satisfy the basic needs of everyday life as well as maintain their housing and living standard.

As of March 1, 2011, the new Styrian Provincial Law of Needs-Oriented Basic Social Security (Steirermärkische Mindestsicherungsgesetz-StMSG), applies to a certain range of services concerning the basic needs of life, housing and health insurance coverage in parallel with the Law on Social Welfare.

The needs-oriented basic social security benefits are paid twelve times a year. At graz.at you will find the so-called “Basic Social Security Calculator” (Mindestsicherungs-Rechner), a tool to calculate and find out whether or not you are eligible for needs-oriented basic social security benefits. People who are not eligible for the benefits of basic social security may still be eligible for social welfare benefits. The voluntary services of the Law on Social Welfare are open as well to those who get basic social security benefits (for instance payment of electricity- and/or rent arrears in order to prevent eviction; medical aid for people who are not insured under basic social security). The Office for Basic Social Security and Social Welfare (Referat für Mindestsicherung und Sozialhilfe) of the Graz Welfare Department is responsible for implementing these two laws.

The staff members are at your service by phone Monday through Friday from 8 AM to 12.30 PM, at +43 316 872-6313, 6368.

ADVISORY SERVICE FOR DEBTORS

The state-approved Graz Advisory Service for Debtors offers help for self-help for the regulation of debts. The counseling is confidential and free of charge! Please, book an appointment beforehand (see page 45).

PROBATION SERVICE

Probation serves the purpose of helping men and women on probation to reintegrate into society after their release from prison and prevents them from further law-breaking and consequently serving additional prison terms. In Austria the organization NEWSTART Styria (NEUSTART) (see page 45) is in charge of the probation service. Probation officers support their clients in finding a job and/or a place to live, in their communication with authorities and offices and most importantly in their individual reintegration into society.

MEDICAL CARE FOR PERSONS NOT COVERED BY HEALTH INSURANCE

Those who are not covered by health care insurance, are still legally entitled to help and to emergency care: Social Welfare covers the costs of emergency medical care while those entitled to Needs-Oriented Basic Social Security are insured via the regional health insurance funds. In Graz the Caritas outpatient clinic Marienambulanz offers medical care free of charge to persons with or without health insurance who for personal reasons (such as alcohol and/or substance abuse, etc.) cannot or do not wish to turn to the public health care system for help.

HELP AND ASSISTANCE FOR HOMELESS PEOPLE
Detailed information can be found in the chapter “Help in Emergency Situations and Acute Crisis.”

COMPENSATORY ALLOWANCE AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO THE COSTS OF NURSING CARE
Recipients of a low or minimum pension may have the right to a compensatory allowance, if the pension received is below the subsistence level. All those who are in need of care to the extent of more than 60 hours monthly are, under certain conditions, eligible for care benefits. Please read the chapter “Senior Citizens” for more details.

CASE OF DEATH
In the case of a death at home a doctor has to be notified immediately who will then declare the person to be dead and fill out the required forms “Report a Death-Death Certificate” as well as a notification (Totenbeschauschein) for the hospital admitting office and the funeral home. Until the doctor arrives no one should touch the dead person (please also do not change his/her clothes). The death has to be reported to the Service Center for Citizens (BürgerInnenamt), Civil Registry Office (Standesamt) by the following work day. In most cases the funeral home will take care of it. At the funeral home of your choice you will get information on all further required formalities concerning the death. If someone dies in a hospital or in a nursing home these institutions will report the death to the authorities. At the Service Center for Citizens you will receive the death certificate which you will need for all further formalities. A staff member of the Civil Registry Service will inform you about which other documents you may need. In Graz there are several cemeteries of the Catholic Church, two cemeteries of the Protestant Church and one cemetery of the Jewish Community. On the interdenominational cemetery of the Holding Graz there is a burial ground for Muslims.

CHILDREN & YOUNG ADULTS

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARENTS AND/OR LEGAL GUARDIANS (CUSTODY)

Child custody is defined as the parents’ and/or legal guardians’ right and obligation to educate and care for the underage child. In the eyes of the law married parents have joint child custody for their legitimate minor children. If the parents are not married at the date of birth of the child, the mother is automatically granted sole custody. But here the parents, regardless whether they are living together or apart, can (at the registry after the birth or at the respective court) apply for joint custody in certain matters of the care, education, legal representation or property management regarding the child’s rearing.

After a divorce the custody of both parents can be retained, if the parents agree on which parent. If the parents fail to come to an agreement or in the case of a parent applying sole custody, the court can decide on a provisional arrangement. The non-custodial parent has, in any case, the right to personal contact with the child (visitation), the right to information on all important matters concerning the child and the right to voice his/her opinion on those issues. If the family court judges the parents unfit for custody of the minor, the court may take their custodial rights away from them and award it to the grandparents, foster parents, a child welfare agency or another more capable person.

Parents can get legal counseling and support concerning these topics at the Youth Welfare Department. Youth Welfare sometimes also acts as legal guardian for the minor child, for instance, in child support claims. Unaccompanied minor foreigner seekers (up to the age of 16) are represented by the Caritas on behalf of the Youth Welfare Department in all matters concerning their asylum procedures and legal status. Both parents have the duty of child support regardless of the outcome of the divorce proceedings and the question of physical custody. The parent who is the primary caretaker of the child renders his/her support duties in the everyday care of the child and is also entitled to family allowance. The other parent has to pay child support. The amount of the child support payment depends on the age and needs of the child as well as on the income of the parent required to pay child support. For further information on these topics contact the information center of the Youth Welfare Department. Tel.: +43 316 872-3199. The line is open Monday through Friday from 7.30 AM to 3 PM.

Child Protection: Parents at risk of harming and/or hurting their child, and who know of children at risk or have questions on child protection, please, turn to the Youth Welfare Department for help, counseling and information. Tel.: +43 316 872-3043, as well as Monday through Friday from 7.30 AM to 6 PM. Outside of these hours, please, call Tel.: +43 316 872-0 or call the next police station at +43 316 888-0 in urgent cases. A Social worker of the Youth Welfare Department will call you back as soon as possible.

COUNSELING & SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES

The City of Graz offers a wide range of services in order to help and support families in the areas of education, family life as well as with problems and in conflict resolution. The aim is to support children and young adults and to include their strengths, resources and possibilities in the respective support measure. The focus of the work and of all support measures is placed on the will and the goals of all parties involved. According to the Law on Youth Welfare, the task of the Youth Welfare Department is to support families in carrying out their duties and to take adequate measures for the protection of children and adolescents, if they should be at risk. When parents are separating or are getting a divorce, both parents can get (legal) counseling and/or mediation. Children and adolescents, who no longer can or should live with their parents, find a new home in assisted socio-educational shared flats or in family foster care.

Family Counseling Service Centers offer comprehensive support to parents of infants and toddlers in all questions concerning education, nutrition, nursing and health care of their children. School Social Work: School social workers of the organization ISOP offer help and counseling for all at several schools in Graz. Children and young adults can talk about their problems and concerns or simply get information on leisure time activities and sports.

YOUNG ADULTS

In order to protect young people from danger, the Styrian Youth Protection Act was passed (Steiermärkische Jugendgesetz-StJG). Among many things it regulates curfew times:
- Children up to the age of 14 years are allowed to go out unaccompanied by an adult care person from 5 AM to 9 PM;
- Adolescents from 14 to 16 years of age are allowed to go out from 5 AM to 11 PM;
- for young adults from 16 years of age curfew times are no longer in place. However, it is in the responsibility of the individual parents or legal guardians to decide if and when their child may fully exploit the curfew times under the Styrian Youth Protection Act.

Further age limits for smoking, drinking alcohol, slot machines and other forms of gambling as well as certain entry bans and -limits are laid down in the Styrian Youth Protection Act. Apart from the rights and obligations of adolescents, the Styrian Youth Protection Act also regulates the responsibility of parents, legal guardians, business owners and event organisers in regard to adolescents. The consequences for adolescents of violations against this law are measures such as counseling, group work, training, social community services. Fines up to a limit of 300€ may be imposed. An implementing decree for the Styrian Youth Protection Act specifies which measure or fine is to be imposed for which delict. Under the same law fines are specified for adults who violate its provisions.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS (CIVIL LAW)

Legal Capacity of Children: Children up to the age of 7 years may buy some small things such as candy with their pocket money. Between the ages 7 to 14 children have a partial legal capacity. They may contract small transactions of day-to-day life such as buying a ticket at the movie theaters. For larger purchases such as buying electronics they need a legal guardian to accompany them or at least his/her explicit consent. Between 14 and 18 years of age young adults may already conclude certain transactions themselves. Young adults may decide themselves on what they spend their pocket money or their income as long as this does not affect their immediate necessities of life in a negative way. Furthermore, young adults are allowed to sign work contracts for a summer job themselves. Different rules apply in regards to contracts concerning apprenticeships. More information on similar legal questions can be found at: kinderanwalt.at.

CHILD CARE- AND CHILD EDUCATION FACILITIES

Information on all municipal child care and child education facilities as well as monetary assistance to the costs of childcare can be gotten free of charge at the ABI Service Center. Individual counseling services are available in German and English.

TEMPORARY CHILDCARE (BABYSITTER):
For short-term child care on an hourly basis there are offers in several districts of Graz such as babysitter-pools and Rent-a-Grandma/Grandpa Services. You can find more information in the brochure „Bildung findet statt“ for download at graz.at.

PLAYGROUPS:
Playgroups are offered in several districts of Graz

DAY NURSERIES (CREECHES FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 0 TO 3):
Public and private day nurseries (list: kinderbetreuung.graz.at) offer day care including meals and help promoting the development of the children in their care. There are special information days for interested parents and their children.

DAY CARE PARENTS:
Children from age 0 to 15 can be cared for in small groups by trained day care parents. For children with special needs the trained MIKADO-Day Care Parents Service is available. The cost charged is based on the amount of time for the care provided. Depending on your income level, you may apply for benefits. Please, call the „ABI-Service“ with any questions you may have on day care services at Tel. +43 316 872-4747.

CHILDREN’S HOUSES (FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 1.5 TO 12):
In three children’s houses in Graz toddlers, children of kindergarten- and school age are cared for in one joint facility. Apart from separate rooms for the respective age groups, joint play of the various groups and ages is possible and encouraged.

KINDERGARTEN (FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 3 TO 6):
Attending a kindergarten promotes the development of your child in many ways. Parents are obligated by law to enroll their child in a child care facility of which most take part in the municipal tariff system. such as a kindergarten during the last year before the child’s school age. This child care year obligatory for all 5-year old children is free of charge up to a care level of 30 hours a week (6 hours per day). More information at: Tel. +43 316 877-7444. In Graz there are municipal child care facilities (list: kinder.graz.at – Kinderbildung und -betreuung) as well as ca. 100 private child care facilities. The cost charged is based on the income level of the parents (social graduation); more and detailed information on this topic can be obtained, when you register your child.
CHILDREN & YOUNG ADULTS

CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DELAYS
For children with delays in their development, such as their motor, language- and/or cognitive skills; handicaps; or unusual behavior, there is integrative, additional care offered. Parents are offered counseling (on education) while their children get individual care and support and the respective therapies. The additional care is free of charge. An application has to be placed with the Office for Social Benefits for People with Disabilities of the City of Graz. The Medical Service of the Youth Welfare Department and the Center for Special Needs Education provide information on school education options. In addition, there are several child care facilities with integration groups as well as 4 remedial child care facilities for children with special needs.

ALL-DAY SCHOOLS, AFTER SCHOOL CARE FACILITIES (FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 6 TO 18):
in about 50 schools in Graz (primary schools, new middleschools, schools for children with special needs, secondary academic schools and private schools) all-day school and/or after school care facilities include a warm lunch. Help with homework, tutoring lessons and creative leisure- and sport activities are offered (list: graz.at – Bildung – Abteilung für Bildung und Integration).

LEARNING CAFES (LEARNCAFES) (FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 6 TO 15):
In the Graz districts of Lend, Gries and Eggenberg, the Caritas runs three Learning Cafes as after school care facilities free of charge.

AFTER SCHOOL CARE FACILITIES (FOR CHILDREN FROM AGES 6 TO 15):
In Graz there are 8 municipal and private after school care facilities. The children and young adults attending these facilities are encouraged and supported in independently doing their homework. In addition the after school care facilities promote intercultural learning and integration of children with special educational needs. The cost charged is based on the income level of the parents (social graduation).

CHILDREN’S UNIVERSITY:
In cooperation with the Graz universities, children of school age may attend workshops at the Children’s University in order to stimulate and encourage the children’s interests in science and research. Great holiday workshop offers! kinderunigraz.at

TIP

HEALTH CARE AND PROMOTION

The health care provided by the doctors and therapists of the Medical Service of the Youth Welfare Department (Ärztlicher Dienst des Amtes für Jugend und Familie) includes antenatal care and counselling for parents and medical care for babies and infants at medical counseling and care as well as early language development at 15 municipal parents’ counseling centers. Offers for children of school age: When children start schooling, a comprehensive health exam including sight and hearing tests is run in the presence of the parents. Tests are run with children who are enrolled in elementary school at an early age to find out if those children are mature enough and ready for school. Continuous health checks throughout schooling at the municipal schools. In addition, medical counseling on healthy nutrition as well as sports- and exercise programmes aim at promoting children’s health. Vaccinations are administered at the Department of Health. The staff at the dental clinics of the School Department promote dental health with children of school age and offer counseling. Motivational sessions are offered for overanxious children. These offers are free of charge.

Sexuality: Information and individual sex education and family planning are offered to young women e.g. at the Women’s Health Center (Frauengesundheitszentrum) and to young men at the Men’s Counseling Center (Männerberatung Graz) of the Youth Welfare Department (Amt für Jugend und Familie), Office for Open Children and Youth Care (Referat für Offene Kinder- und Jugendarbeit). The project „points4action“ which aims at bringing together different generations, adults of the age group 14 – 18 years spend (leisure-) time together with senior citizens. The participating adolescents earn action points for their commitment which they, in turn, can exchange for movie tickets and other leisure time activities. More information at points4action.at

YOUTH STREET WORK FOR YOUNG ADULTS FROM 13 TO 21 YEARS

The team of street workers frequently does outreach work for young adults in the inner city of Graz in order to connect with and support young people who are stressed and may need someone to talk to or help for various reasons. At the drop-in youth center „Anlaufstelle“ at Jakominiplatz 1, young adults find refuge, get something to eat, can take a shower, wash their clothes, etc.

The drop-in shelter Anlaufstelle offers information and counseling, referrals to respective competent authorities and accompanies its clients to appointments (to other counseling centers or to the police).

Contact at: Tel +43 316 80 15-470 or online at: jugendstreetwork.caritas-steiermark.at

INTERCULTURAL YOUTH WORK

For all questions concerning family life, education and career opportunities or social and cultural integration, interested young adults with a migration background and their parents and even their teachers as well can turn to the organization ISOP – Innovative Social Projects for information and counseling.

MOBILITY AND TRAFFIC

Pedestrians: Teach your child the basic traffic rules at an early age. Try to assess at what age your child can walk to school on his/her own. In order to make sure that your child will be safe, walk the way to school together and explain and discuss any potentially dangerous spots.

MICRO-SCOOTER, SCOOTER, SKATEBOARD ETC.

These are only allowed to be used in areas for pedestrians such as sidewalks, pedestrian zones and play streets in residential areas. Inline skates: These are allowed in areas for pedestrians but also on bicycle routes and separate bicycle lanes.

BICYCLE RIDING FROM 10 YEARS OF AGE

The city of Graz assists children in learning how to ride a bicycle as early as from the age of kindergarten. However, children younger than 10 years may ride their bicycles on public roads and places only in the company of persons who are 16 years and older.

With a bicycle-rider’s license children from the age of 10 years may ride their bicycle in real road traffic (without adult escort); otherwise as of age 12 and older only. The license is issued by the Department of Street Administration of the City of Graz. The non-compulsory theoretical cycling exam is held in fourth grade the primary school teachers. The practical exam is held at the bicycle proficiency training area in the main municipal park (Stadtpark). More information on this topic in German and English languages at: radfahrtraining.at.

SIDEWALKER (SCOOTER)

The same rules apply as for bicycles. You may ride a sidewalk on streets, bicycle routes and separate bicycle lanes, but not on sidewalks.

MOTOR BIKE RIDING

Young adults from the age of 15 with a driver’s license category AM (former driver’s license for motor bikes) may ride a motor bike at the maximum speed of 45 km/h. In order to get a driver’s license, a course in theory and practical driving training at a driving school have to be taken and the exam passed. The course can be started at the earliest six months before the 15th birthday.

Passengers in a car: Children under the age of 14 or with a height of less than 150 cm have to be seated in a child’s seat adequate to their height and weight.

Driving from the age of 17 years

It is already possible at the age of 15 ½ to start basic driving lessons at a driving school. The practical driving lessons for the driver’s license at 17 can be taken in the company of an authorized person who has had a driver’s license for at least seven years. The exam may not be taken until the 17th birthday.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Application forms for public transportation passes are given to the pupils at school. Apart from the subsidized bus passes there are other discounts such as for apprentices or children attending boarding school (see: verbundlinie.at/tarif/302030/schueler_lehrlinge_mehr.php). During the summer holidays children under the age of 15 may use the Graz Lines free of charge; for other public transportation lines a special youth holiday ticket. Ticket is available at a great discount price (verbundlinie.at/slf/ferienticket.php).
Integration. Once your child has completed compulsory schooling attend this one year polytechnic school where they are educated as well as prepared and qualified for a future vocational training.

UPPER GRADES SECONDARY ACADEMIC AND -VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS
For more information see page 60!

MOTHER TONGUE TEACHING
Pupils with a first language other than German may study their first language as an elective school subject. Participation in these classes is voluntary and free of charge, but we recommend that pupils take advantage of this option. In this way language skills imparted at home can be reinforced. A good knowledge of one’s first language is the basis for acquiring further (foreign) language skills and can have a positive impact on the overall school performance of your child. Currently several schools offer the following language classes in the framework of mother tongue teaching: Albanian, Arabic, Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian, Chechen, Chinese, French, Persian, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian and Turkish. For more information on this service, please turn to the Department of Education and Integration and/or to the school your child attends. At: bmukk.gv.at/schulen/unterricht/muttersprachlicher-unterricht you will find valuable information in German and some other languages.

SCHOOLS FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS
For handicapped children with special educational needs there are various and special educational options. Apart from attending a special needs school, the parents may also opt for their child to attend an integrated class (Integrationsklasse) within a regular school. Depending on the individual needs of the child, he/she may be additionally assisted by a nursing and/or auxiliary service. Some schools have already made construction modifications to be barrier-free. There are several schools for blind or visually impaired pupils as well as for deaf or hearing impaired pupils. More information at the Department of Education and Integration and/or the Centers for Special Needs Education (Sonderpädagogische Zentren).

EDUCATION

COMPULSORY SCHOOLING
(For children 6-15 years, 1ST THROUGH 9TH GRADE)
School attendance in Austria is compulsory for all children ages 6 through 15. The school year always starts in September. It is the responsibility of the parents to see that their children attend school. Those who fail to send their children to school can be fined.

PRIMARY SCHOOL
(For children 6-10 years, 1ST THROUGH 4TH GRADE)
Parents generally have to enroll their child in the school nearest to their residence nine months before the start of the new school year. Should parents choose a school at another location, they need to ask permission from the Department of Education and Integration (Abteilung für Bildung und Integration). Parents and/or legal guardians of school age children will receive a letter from the Department of Education and Integration requesting them to have their children registered in school. There are more than 50 public and private primary schools in Graz (list at: lsr-stmk.gv.at – Schulführer). Children of school age who are not yet mature enough to start 1st grade have to attend a year of preschool. The preschool year counts as a school year in regard to compulsory schooling. Preschool classes are offered at every primary school. For questions, please turn to the Department of Education and Integration. Once your child has completed primary school, after having finished 4th grade, there are several options regarding secondary school education.

NEW MIDDLE SCHOOL
(For children 10-14 years, 5TH THROUGH 8TH GRADE)
There are more than 20 public and private New Middle Schools (NMS) in Graz. The NMS aims at providing general education, as well as preparing pupils for working life or intermediate and higher-level secondary education. For pupils with special talents, there are special focus schools. The NMS are committed to providing equal educational opportunities for all pupils at the level of the curriculum of an academic secondary school. Depending on the individual school performance, after 8th grade the pupils get a school leaving certificate of either the Secondary General School or of an Academic Secondary School Providing General Education.

PRE-VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
(POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL, 15 YEARS, 9TH GRADE)
The pre-vocational school in Herrgottwiesgasse 160c comprises of two classes of the New Middle School Webling, is the 9th grade for pupils who have successfully completed the 8th grade and rounds up the nine years of compulsory schooling. Generally, pupils who want to start working and/or learn a profession by doing an apprenticeship immediately after
There are many services in Graz which offer career counseling and information on possibilities of vocational training as well as counseling on higher education beyond secondary school: the IBOBB Café (Career- and Education Counseling, Information and Orientation) or the Careers Information Center (Berufsinformationszentrum-BIZ).

The School Psychology and Career Counseling Service of the Department of Education of the Styrian School Board offers counseling for pupils with a first language other than German as well as for their parents, teachers and all schools on problems related to school and on further vocational training and higher school education. Last but not least help and support for “newcomers” in finding adequate German courses are offered.

The objective of AHS schools is to impart comprehensive, in-depth general education. The final examination is called „Matura“ and entitles pupils to the access to higher education such as university of colleges. To be admitted to AHS pupils must have successfully completed elementary school with good grades. If applicants have lower grades, they have to take an entrance exam. There are several forms of academic secondary schools to choose from: General Secondary Academic School (Gymnasium), Secondary Academic School (Realgymnasium) and Secondary Academic School (Wirtschaftskundliches Realgymnasium) (List: ahs-stmk.at/cms).

The vocational schools (Fachschulen) impart comprehensive know-how in a specific profession and field of expertise to their pupils and finish with a final examination after three and four years respectively. The five years Upper Grades Secondary Vocational Schools offer complete vocational education that qualifies pupils for higher-level occupations in the respective profession and field of expertise. Pupils graduate in a diploma examination which also is the entry qualification for universities. Depending on the field of expertise there are several options: Technical upper grades secondary schools for engineering, arts and crafts; other upper grades secondary vocational schools, upper grades secondary schools for business administration and business schools; upper grades secondary schools for social and services industries, secondary upper grades training schools for nursery school teachers and social pedagogy as well as upper grades secondary schools for agriculture and forestry. EDUCATION

At berufskompass.at pupils will find a list of recommendations for professions that require an apprenticeship. Further information on the rights and obligations of apprentices can be found at: menschen.steiermark.at Doing an apprenticeship includes attending the public vocational school as part of the training and taking the final exam for apprentices (Lehrabschlussprüfung-LAP). Once the apprenticeship is concluded, there are several options for further vocational education such as attending foreman training institutes or vocational colleges, taking the examination for a master craftsman’s certificate or the vocational matriculation exam.

COMPLETING AN APPRENTICESHIP
There are possibilities of completing an incomplete apprenticeship. For those 18 years and older and possessing the necessary vocational skills (acquired in at least 2 years of work experience as a general rule) it is possible to take the final exam for apprentices.

EXTERNAL EXAMS
By taking external exams one can obtain a school-leaving certificate or certificates for certain school subjects of a grade without actually having attended the class/school.

ADULT EDUCATION
There are several possibilities for adults to obtain basic education, secondary and higher educational qualifications such as a high school diploma.

BASIC EDUCATION
At the organization ISOP adults can improve their reading and writing skills and/or refresh basic skills or obtain computer skills free of charge.

BASIC EDUCATION AND SCHOOL-LEAVING QUALIFICATION
The promotion of basic education and school-leaving qualification is of great importance. Therefore various basic education trainings and possibilities of obtaining a school leaving qualification are offered. Information on educational providers and training offerings can be obtained at the Education Network Styria (Bildungsnetzwerk Steiermark) at bildungsnetzwerk-stmk.at

The application for an external exam should be placed with the headmaster’s office of the respective school.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS EXAM
At several institutions in Graz, such as evening schools, one can first take courses and then take the professional qualifications exam equivalent to a high school diploma.

HIGHER EDUCATION ENTRANCE EXAM
This qualification is an option for those who have not acquired a high school diploma but would still like to go to university.

SCHOOLS FOR PEOPLE IN EMPLOYMENT
In these school employees and/or all those who have completed their (vocational) education may acquire further education and the respective qualifications parallel to their jobs in evening classes. Requirements: at least 17 years of age, completion of the 8th grade, in employment or completed vocational training. Many secondary vocational schools as well as colleges can be attended in evening classes.
UNIVERSITIES STUDIES

UNIVERSITIES OF APPLIED SCIENCES (FH): The Universities of Applied Sciences provide practical higher education for the economy and technology and are committed to enhancing the valorization, innovation and development of companies. The two Graz universities of applied sciences FH Joanneum (fh-joanneum.at) and Campus02 (campus02.at) offer more than 50 Bachelor and Master programs as well as university diploma courses.

More information on the admission requirements and processes as well as on the study conditions may be obtained at the universities’ hotlines of student counseling services.

UNIVERSITIES
There are different types of studies and degrees: Bachelor-, Master- and Doctorate studies. There are four universities in Graz:
• The Karl-Franzens-University with six faculties (uni-graz.at),
• The Technical University with seven faculties (tugraz.at),
• The Medical University (meduni-graz.at),
• The University for Music and Dramatic Arts (kug.ac.at).

For all studies the high school leaving certificate (Matura) is a university entrance requirement. In some studies additional exams have to be taken. In other studies there are entrance exams and/or restrictions. There are specific admission requirements for international students (See: oehunigraz.at). Get personal counseling on all questions related to admission requirements at the AAI Graz and at the Office for International Relations of the KF-Uni Graz) and also requirements concerning German proficiency skills. More information at the Austrian National Student Union (ÖH). For all those who move to Graz to study, there is useful information on the Graz homepage at.

TEACHER TRAINING COLLEGES
Teacher Training Colleges train teachers for the elementary and secondary school level. There are: The Teacher Training College Styria (Pädagogische Hochschule Steiermark) (phst. at) and the Catholic Church affiliated Teacher Training College of the diocese Graz-Seckau (kphgraz.at).

RECOGNITION OF EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS (ACADEMIC ACCREDITATION)
Academic qualifications of school-, university- and vocational education which were obtained abroad have to be officially recognized in an academic accreditation procedure in Austria. This procedure requires a lot of documents to be presented (in translation). Often some additional exams have to be taken in order to obtain academic accreditation. More information in the chapter “Work”.

ADULT EDUCATION
There are many adult education centers for further trainings and higher qualification. Their various offers range from range from cooking to language courses to complex vocational further training courses. A list of all institutions as well as an overview of all courses offered can be found at weiterbildung.stiermark.at and at bildungszentrum-stmk.at
The organization ZEBRA is training migrants to become educational guides. The Contact Point AST offers multi-lingual counseling on the recognition of qualifications and competences acquired abroad (zebra.or.at).

LANGUAGE COURSES – GERMAN
Good German skills are essential for being able to communicate in your private and professional settings as well as in the contact with authorities and institutions. Non-EU citizens who are living in Graz, have to provide proof of their German proficiency in the framework of the Integration Agreement (Integrationsvereinbarung) in order to be allowed further residence in Austria. For more information on this topic, please, read the chapter “Integration & Migration.”

LIBRARIES
The various and many public and scientific libraries in Graz contribute to education. The Municipal Library (Stadtbibliothek) at: stadtbibliothek.graz.at as part of the Department of Culture of the City of Graz with its main library „Zanklhof” and the Media Library (Mediathek), six branch libraries and the „Bookmobile” as a mobile library offer a great variety of books, magazines, audio books, movies and music CDs. There is a good selection of books in foreign languages for children and adults alike as well as multi-media German and other foreign language learning programs. In addition, the library of the Province of Styria, the library of the Chamber of Labor and the libraries of the Graz universities are valuable and important centers of education and further education.

MUSEUMS
Museums and exhibitions as well contribute to education (Please, read more in chapter “Arts and Culture”).

HEALTH CARE

In Graz, there is a closely-knit network of medical doctors of all specialties, pharmacies, hospitals and therapists. The state of the art medical care for the citizens of Graz is guaranteed 24 hours and meets the highest quality criteria.

HEALTH INSURANCE

In Austria there is a system of compulsory Social Security: Your employer is required by law to register you with the Social Security Institution (Sozialversicherung) before you start work (you will get a copy of the registration from your employer). Social Security covers Health-, Accident-, and Pension insurance and entitles you to use all medical services covered under the health insurance.

If, however, you earn less than 425.70 Euro monthly (as of 1.1.2017), you are employed only marginally (geringfügig). In this case you are only covered by accident insurance. You can, however, opt for a private health insurance at reduced insurance contributions which you can apply for at your Regional Health Insurance Fund. In Austria 99.5 percent of the population is covered by health insurance. In case you do not have health insurance or are not insured under somebody else’s insurance; such as spouse or parent, you may buy a private health insurance. You simply can place an application at the Styrian Regional Health Insurance Fund (GKK). There may be a waiting period of up to six months required before you can receive insurance benefits. For detailed information and counseling on all insurance issues, please turn to the Styrian Regional Health Insurance Fund. Further information at sozialversicherung.at.

HEALTH INSURANCE CARD (E-CARD)

Your insurance provider will issue a Health Insurance Card (E-Card) which basically is your health insurance certificate in a credit-card format. You need to present the Health Insurance Card at every visit to the doctor, the health insurance or the hospital. If you don’t have the Health Insurance Card with you, you may have to deposit a certain amount of money. On your Health Insurance Card only your personal data: name and social security number are stored. Asylum seekers get a Health Insurance Card, if their asylum application is ongoing and they have been accepted in the system of Federal Basic Care.

PRESCRIPTION CHARGE

Most medical services in Austria are free of charge for those covered by health insurance. If your doctor prescribes medication (and gives you the prescription to be filled at the pharmacy), you will have to pay a fee for it at the pharmacy. This charge currently is at 6.10 Euro (as of Jan. 1, 2019). Persons and families with a low income and those who have to take a lot of medication over long periods of time may be exempt from paying the prescription charge. If your expenses for prescription charges amount to more than 2 percent of your net annual income, you are automatically exempt from paying the prescription charge. You can get more information on this topic at the Regional Health Insurance Fund (GKK), Tel.: +43 316 8035-0.

MEDICAL EMERGENCY SERVICE/ DOCTOR ON DUTY

For medical attention outside of doctors’ opening hours, there is the medical emergency service. The doctor on duty makes house calls, too: Monday to Friday from 7PM to 7AM, Saturday, Sunday and Holiday 24 hours on duty. Address: Marburger Kai 51, 8010 Graz, Tel. +43 316 71 92 01 emergency call 141.

PHARMACIES

The opening hours of the pharmacies in Graz are Monday through Friday from 8AM to 6PM and on Saturday from 8AM to 12AM or 1PM. At night, on weekends and on holidays there is an emergency service of pharmacies on duty. (You will have to pay an additional charge for this service). The information on which pharmacy is currently on duty is posted at every pharmacy, in the local newspapers or on the internet at apothekenindex.at or at apotheker.or.at. Emergency service for the respective pharmacy on duty at Tel. 14 55.
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH CARE OF THE CITY OF GRAZ
The Department for Health Care of the City of Graz offers vaccination services free of charge for children. The department supports the Province of Styria in its immunization efforts (FSME/Influenza) for adults (chargeable), offers pre-natal classes as well as classes on diet-counseling and many other services.

MARIENAMBULANZ: MEDICAL CARE FOR THOSE WITHOUT INSURANCE COVERAGE
Even if you are not covered by health insurance, you still are legally entitled to medical care in case of illness. Social Welfare covers the costs of emergency medical care while those entitled to Needs-Oriented Basic Social Security are insured via the regional health insurance funds. The Caritas Outpatient Clinic Marienambulanz offers easy access medical care free of charge to women and men who are not covered by health insurance and also for those covered by health insurance who for different reasons [such as alcohol and/or substance abuse and – addiction] do not wish to use services of the public health care system.

TIP
In case of illness: Please, turn to your general practitioner as a first step and not immediately to the emergency clinics of the Graz hospitals!
For women and men who do not hold the Austrian citizenship, but would like to stay in Austria for a longer period of time, there are numerous regulations concerning their stay as well as residence status.

CITIZENS OF EEA-COUNTRIES AND SWITZERLAND
EEA- European Economic Area: All member states of the European Union as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. EEA- and Swiss citizens are allowed to stay in Austria for a period of time exceeding three month, if they are • Employed or self-employed in Austria or • Have sufficient financial means to support themselves and their family members and have health insurance coverage.

If EEA- or Swiss citizens are staying in Austria for a period of time exceeding three months, they have to register their legal residency with the respective authority in charge of residence permits (application for a confirmation of registration; "Anmeldebescheinigung"). In Graz that would be the Department 3 of the Styrian Government within four months of the date of their arrival in Austria (see info-box on page 69).

After five years of permanent and legal residence in Austria, EEA- and Swiss citizens are eligible to apply for a permanent residence confirmation (Bescheinigung des Daueraufenthalts) with the Department 3 of the Styrian Government. EEA- or Swiss citizens who are family members of EEA- or Swiss citizens legally living in Austria also have the right to stay in Austria for a period of three months, if they meet certain criteria (such as being married, being registered partners, being direct relatives). For more information, please, turn to the Department 3 of the Styrian Government.

THIRD-COUNTRY NATIONALS
Citizens of so called third countries (Non-Member States of the EU and the EEA respectively) and wish to stay in Austria for a period of time longer than six months need a legal residence title. The Aliens’ Police Act (Fremdenpolizeigesetz) applies for a stay of up to six months. For a longer stay than six months, the new Austrian Law on Residence and Settlement of Foreigners (Niederlassungs- und Aufenthaltsgesetz NAG) applies.

RESIDENCE TITLES
There are different types of residence permits, which entitle their holder to a limited or an unlimited settlement in Austria.

RESIDENCE TITLES FOR A LIMITED SETTLEMENT
• Temporary residence permit: temporary and limited residence
• Red-White-Red-Card: limited settlement, limited access to the labor market
• Red-White-Red-Card plus: limited settlement, unlimited access to the labor market
• Blue Card EU: limited settlement, limited access to the labor market for a period of 12 months
• Settlement permit: limited settlement, limited access to the labor market
• Settlement permit – excluding work: limited settlement, no access to the labor market.
• Settlement permit – family member: limited settlement, no access to the labor market.
• Family member: limited settlement, unlimited access to the labor market

RESIDENCE TITLES FOR UNLIMITED SETTLEMENT:
• Permanent Residence – EEA: unlimited settlement, unlimited access to the labor market

INITIAL APPLICATION
The initial application for a residence title has to be placed from abroad prior to entry into Austria. You must apply for this in person at the Austrian representation agency in charge, such as embassies or general consulates of the country where you, the prospective immigrant, live. In order to be granted a residence title, certain requirements have to be met (specific income levels, health insurance, a place to live, etc.).

At the end of the application process, applicants receive a short-term stay- or travel visa in order to be able to enter Austria where they then receive the residence title. Limited residence titles are generally granted for a period of twelve months starting with the date of issuance. Some groups of people may also place the initial application for a residence title in Austria, for instance family members of Austrian citizens or individuals not subject to a visa requirement during their visa-free stay.

RENEWAL OF A RESIDENCE TITLE
In order to renew the residence title, one has to place an application of renewal BEFORE the expiration date of the former residence title at the respective authority. For those who are living in Graz this would be the Department 3 of the Styrian Government.

Attention! Never place your application late because it will be treated as an initial application! Residence permits are at first renewed for the period of one year.

CHANGE OF RESIDENCE PURPOSE
Residence permits are granted for a certain purpose (such as work). If you want to change the purpose of your residence, you have to inform the relevant authority about it (Department 3 of the Styrian Government).

SETTLEMENT PERMIT FOR NEWBORN INFANTS
Newborns, who are not Austrian citizens, are not subject to visa requirements for the first six months of their lives. This means that during this period they require neither entry nor residence titles to be able to reside legally in the federal territory of Austria, provided that their mother or another person who is solely responsible for their care and upbringing holds a valid residence title for Austria. If the mother does not hold a valid residence title in Austria, initial applications for a residence title must be placed for the mother and the child from abroad.

SETTLEMENT PERMIT FOR FAMILY MEMBERS OF PERMIT HOLDERS

Family members who want to join parents, spouses or civil partners who are already living and working in Austria can apply for a settlement permit which is derived from the family member already in Austria. If the original family member loses his/her settlement permit within the first five years of parents, spouse or civil partner coming to Austria, the derived right to settlement of the family member expires as well. This, however, can be prevented if the family member is capable on his/her own to fulfill the requirements for granting his/her settlement permit.

THE RIGHT OF SETTLEMENT DOES NOT TERMINATE, IF ...

Family members do not lose the right to settlement based on the termination of the purpose of residence, if any of the following situations applies:

- The death of the spouse or the parent
- A divorce on the grounds of the prevailing fault of the other spouse.
- Important reasons which should be considered (for instance if the family member is a victim of domestic violence).

In order to protect his/her right to settlement, the family member is advised to inform the respective authority immediately, if any of the stated situations applies. More information at the Austrian Federal Ministry of the Interior on phone at the hotline +43 1 531 26 35 57, or online at bmi.gv.at and at help.gv.at.

GERMAN LANGUAGE SKILLS BEFORE IMMIGRATION

Third country nationals have to start learning German before their arrival. Language skills have to be at the very basic level A1; communication in German at a very basic level is possible. This means that third-country nationals have to account for basic skills of German as early as in the initial application of the first residence title. Migrants may take one of the officially recognized language diplomas at A1 level at a recognized language learning institute in their home country (See also Integration Agreement). The diploma has to be current (not older than one year) when applying.

THE INTEGRATION AGREEMENT

The Integration Agreement (Integrationsvereinbarung-IV) serves the purpose of promoting the integration of migrants (German language acquisition) from so-called third countries (and not from EU/EEA Member States nor Swiss nationals) who have settled permanently and rightfully in Austria. Proof of a basic level of German skills (A1) has to be presented even before immigration in the application phase of the first residence permit; this, however, is not part of the Integration Agreement. The integration agreement consists of two modules. In the module 1 the so called obligatory A2 level of German language skills has to be acquired within two years of the first issuance of the residence title. In the module 2 you acquire German skills of the B1 level. This is a requirement for a permanent right of residence (Daueraufenthaltsrecht) and an eventual granting of Austrian citizenship. For counseling on language course offers and subsidies, please, turn to the Integration Centre of the Austrian Integration Fund-ÖIF (integrationsfonds.at).
THE LAW ON INTEGRATION
The passing of the new Law on Integration is still ongoing at the date of the publication of this brochure. In the Austrian Law on Integration the expansion of German Language and Value Courses will firmly be anchored. In addition an “Integration Contract” and a “Declaration of honor” concerning defined values as well as severe penalties applicable to breaches of the Integration Contract will be part of the new Law on Integration. The current Austrian government program also mentions the implementation of an obligatory “Integration Year”. For updates on any developments concerning the Law on Integration and its effects, please, check the internet and/or contact the Integration Centre of the Austrian Integration Fund-ÖIF (integrationsfonds.at).

THE INTEGRATION OFFICE OF THE CITY OF GRAZ
The Integration Office of the city of Graz has been established on November 3, 2005. It aims at promoting Integration and participation of all Graz residents. The Integration Office coordinates and implements respective integration measures. It promotes the cultural and social diversity of our city and its residents. As a key issue on its agenda, the Integration Office actively supports the intercultural opening of the entire city administration through coordination efforts, networking and counseling services. The Integration Office provides financial support and coordination for many inclusive projects through grant applications. The “Integration Strategy” that was adopted by the City Council in 2015 serves as the programmatic foundation of all measures and projects concerning integration in our city.

FOCAL AREAS OF THE INTEGRATION OFFICE
The city of Graz recognizes integration as a cross-sectional task which affects nearly all areas of the city’s administration. The Integration Office therefore serves as the interdepartmental coordination unit for the topics of integration and inclusion. In this function it supports and counsels municipal departments and institutions, as well as other organizations in the areas immigration, integration and intercultural exchange. A further task of the Integration Office is to point out weaknesses and gaps in the current system.

TASKS OF THE INTEGRATION OFFICE
• Implementation of the Integration Strategy of the City of Graz.
• Support of the intercultural opening and orientation of the municipal administration through counseling, events, further qualification offers and inter-departmental cooperation projects.
• Interface between the city administration and the committed organizations, NGOs, interest groups, initiatives as well as all interested Graz citizens.
• Networking between existing services of the city of Graz.
• Initiating measures and projects in the field of migration and integration.
• Active public relations function through publication of information material and expert papers, participation in networking events.
• Support of Interfaith Dialogue initiatives.
• Financial support of intercultural projects and integration measures through grant applications.

GERMAN LANGUAGE COURSES IN GRAZ
STARTING POINT GERMAN [STARTPUNKT DEUTSCH] helps you to find the course offer which is right for you taking into account your personal wishes and needs such as being close to where you live, corresponding to your working hours/free time or child care responsibilities.

INTERPRETERS’ SERVICES
Women and men who are newcomers to Austria and are, not yet capable of communicating in German need translation services (free of charge for clients) in order to be able to overcome language and cultural barriers and communicate their needs. The organizations OMEGA and ISOP offer various translation services for migrants in order to facilitate their integration processes. Many other services and organizations have understood the need for interpreters’ services and have set up internal translation services and/or offer information brochures translated in different languages.

MIGRANTS’ COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GRAZ
The Migrants’ Council is the platform for political participation of immigrants in Graz. It does not offer individual counseling. Instead, the Migrants’ Council concentrates on general issues that affect the whole migrant community. One of the Council’s most important tasks is to advise local politicians and municipal administration. Problematic areas such as political and social discrimination against migrants, the unsatisfactory housing situation and challenges in the field of education are taken up by the Migrants’ Council and after which are presented to the respective politicians of the municipal government in combination with suggestions for the improvement of the situation and the empowerment of migrants respectively. More information on the Migrants’ Council as well as a list of self-organized migrants in Graz can be found on the homepage of the City of Graz at: graz.at/migrantinnenbeirat.

VOLUNTARY WORK

Many people who live in Graz participate in civic life in diverse forms and with personal commitment so that co-existence in our beautiful city is even more successful. Here in Graz, you will find a wide range of volunteer work with many possibilities to volunteer your time and where personal assistance is urgently needed. In areas such as integration, health, neighbourliness, environmental protection, sport, culture, leisure, education and many more, it is not only large social and blue light organisations such as Caritas, the Red Cross and the voluntary fire brigade (to name just a few) that are found but also many smaller and larger initiatives where young and old can actively become involved.

NETWORK

Since 2015, the area of civic involvement has also increasingly become the focus of the city of Graz. That is why the network ‘Graz entwickelt Ehrenamt’ (‘Graz develops volunteer work’) was launched in order to exchange ideas and information with many different organisations and initiatives, to create links between them and to also think together about service and further training projects.

If you are a volunteer for your initiative or your association and want to be part of our network, please write to us. We would be delighted to hear from you.

TRAINING OFFERED IN THE FIELD OF VOLUNTARY WORK

If required, the Integration department offers the possibility of free-of-charge participation in training courses on the topic of volunteer work. In the process, interesting insights and exciting input are gained in the area of active citizenship. Have you always wanted to volunteer? Be part of it!

ADVICE ON VOLUNTEERING

In questions of tax and association law, consultation days with professional experts are also organised and interesting and exciting workshops from specific areas of expertise offered.

fee – VOLUNTEER PLATFORM AND INSURANCE

With the volunteer platform and the insurance for volunteers, the city of Graz is bringing people who want to be actively involved in their free time together with organisations who require support. fee stands for ‘freiwillig’ (‘voluntary’), ‘engagiert’ (‘active’) and ehrenamtlich (‘unpaid’) and is a free-of-charge online platform.
NON-DISCRIMINATION & PARTICIPATION

There are people who for different reasons cannot take part in society with the same possibilities as others. Sometimes people or groups of people are still discriminated against in Austria. This is why there are laws against discrimination in Austria and organizations which advocate equal rights for disadvantaged women and men.

GRAZ CITY OF HUMAN RIGHTS
In the year 2001 Graz became the first city in Europe to be awarded the title “European City Coalition against Racism” (Menschenrechtsstadt). In 2006 Graz joined the European City Coalition against Racism (Europäische Städtekoalition gegen Rassismus). The award encompasses a great responsibility for all citizens in Graz to actively engage in a commitment to human rights and against racism. The Human Rights Council of the City of Graz publishes an annual Human Rights Report which provides information on the state of human rights in Graz. graz.at/menschenrechte

EQUAL RIGHTS AND EQUAL TREATMENT FOR WOMEN AND MEN ALIKE
Women and men in Austria are equal by law (the law on Equal Treatment applies to women, men and transsexual persons). In theory the gender equality covers equality in economic, social and civil life, including all areas such as education and work. The practice often paints a quite different picture. Women are often discriminated against simply because of their gender. Unfortunately in Austria the principle of equal wages for equal work has yet to be enforced. The division of tasks and duties in the family is imbalanced between men and women mostly at the expense of women. Women in senior management positions are still the exception to the rule. Women run a much higher risk of falling victim to sexual violence and abuse as well as to sexual harassment. In Graz there are several organizations which counsel girls and women who are discriminated against: the Department for Women & Gender Equality of the City of Graz (Referat Frauen & Gleichstellung); actively engage in promoting measures to ensure equal rights of women and men in all spheres of life. The Graz Ombudsperson counsels and supports women and girls at her office and in the Graz districts. The Equal Opportunities Commissioner of the City of Graz and the Equal Treatment Commission - Regional Branch Office Styria are the competent authorities and contact services for anybody who feels discriminated against, regardless of his/her gender.

Girls may also turn to MAFALDA – Organization for the Promotion of Girls and Young Women for help, information and support. Mafalda runs the youth center JAM, for girls only. Women and girls can get counseling at the Women’s Health Centre (Frauengesundheitszentrum). Counseling for psychological problems and patients’ rights and general and specific health information in various languages are as well offered at the Women’s Health Center.

Migrant women are welcome to turn to the organization DANAIDA with all their questions and concerns the Women’s Health Care Centre women and girls can get counseling on contraceptives, pregnancy, abortion, etc. They may also turn to the counseling center with psychological problems and legal health rights issues as well as get information on important health care issues in various languages. Women and their children who are victims of sexual and/or domestic violence find protection (24 hours) at the Shelter for Battered Women Graz (Frauenhaus Graz).

Other crisis centers for girls and women in situations of sexual and/or domestic violence are TARA – Counseling, therapy and prevention of sexual violence against girls and women, and the Center for the Protection of Violence Styria (Gewaltschutzzentrum Steiermark). The organization Hazissa focuses on the area of prevention of sexual violence against girls and boys. The Institute of Practice-Oriented Gender Studies-PERIPHERIE is concerned with facts and figures on gender equality in

PROMOTION OF CHILDREN’S RIGHTS AND PARTICIPATION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS

Children’s rights are human rights and have partly been established in the Austrian Constitution. Children’s rights include the right of children being protected from abuse, neglect, exploitation and discrimination, the right to education, the best possible development and to information. Children are awarded special protection from any form of violence against them and in particular from sexualised violence. The dignity of children is to be respected and to be promoted. Children have a right to demanding their needs and to participate in shaping their living environment and public space (such as parks).

In Graz there are several organizations which support children and young adults in the implementation of their rights and in the promotion of their interests.

LOGO!, an information service center for young people of the Province of Styria offers several attractive services from career counseling to issuing the checkit-card (an ID-card which entitles its holder to many discounts).

At the ESO.INFO young adults can get comprehensive information on esotericism, occultism, satanism, right-wing extremism and religious fundamentalism.

The Ombudsman for Children and Adolescents Styria (Kinder- und Jugendarichteramt Steiermark – kijaa) informs children and young adults through the Children’s- and Youth’s Rights Line on their rights and offers counseling and help. The Children’s Office Styria (Kinderbüro Steiermark) supports children in questions concerning their rights, education and science, urban planning and mobility, housing and work.

Graz is proud to present its own Children’s Parliament (Kinderparlament) with a female and a male Children’s Mayor. The Children’s Parliament meets regularly and participates in policy-making for city planning.

Several ideas have already been put into practice such as the redesign of children’s playgrounds or a Graffiti wall.

Adolescents are eligible to vote from the age of 16. Young adults from the age of 18 have the right to stand for election (with the exception of the election of the federal Austrian President).

In Graz there currently are 13 youth centers, where young adults are offered fun opportunities such as meeting friends, being creative and having experienced youth workers there for help and support. In addition there is the Girls’Center.JAM. JAM and especially for music lovers the youth- & culture center „Explosiv“.

With all problems within the family (and also in cases of domestic violence) the four branch offices of the Youth Welfare Department of the City of Graz are places to turn to for children and adolescents and their respective families. In emergency situations Tartaruga, a refuge and counseling center, offers protection and help for young people from the age of 13. Tartaruga is a place where you can talk and/or spend the night if you at the time do not want to or cannot stay with your family. Parents are welcome to counseling as well if they have difficulties with their children. The Schlupfhaus, run by the Caritas, is another emergency shelter for adolescents and young adults.

PARTICIPATION AND RIGHTS OF MIGRANTS IN AUSTRIA (NON-AUSTRIAN CITIZENSHP)

In several areas of life in Austria EU-citizens enjoy more rights than so-called third country nationals (from Non-EU member states). EU-citizens are for instance allowed to vote in the municipal elections. There is no special counseling center for EU-citizens in Graz; they have to turn to the same competent authorities as Austrian citizens.

Third country nationals (from Non-EU member states) who are living in Graz have their own representation—the Migrants’ Council of the City of Graz (MigrantInnenbeirat). The Migrants’ Council members are elected by the Non-EU citizens living in Graz every five years on the same date as the municipal council elections.

EQUAL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

Over the past two decades many women and men from different countries have moved to Graz and made our city and Austria their new home. Many of them have become Austrian citizens by now. There are also Graz residents as citizens with a migration background in the family who have been born and have grown up in Graz. Thus Graz has changed and has become more diverse as far as languages, cultures, traditions and religions are concerned. Graz proffits a great deal from this new diversity. But at the same time these changes provoke anxieties and a defensive attitude with some people. And so it unfortunately happens that sometimes people are still discriminated against because of their (different) language, their difference in skin color and/or appearance or because of their religion. Some are refused entrance to certain clubs and bars, others are denied rights when applying for a job or looking for a place to rent. These are violations of applicable anti-discrimination laws. Victims of discrimination may turn to the police or the Anti-Discrimination Office for help and support. The City of Graz through its Department of Integration encourages many projects and supports organizations which in turn through their work promote socio-cultural diversity and anti-discrimination measures.

Among these organizations are the ARGE Youth Against Violence and Racism (ARGE Jugend gegen Gewalt und Rassismus); European Training- and Research Center for Human Rights and Democracy (Europäisches Trainings- und Forschungszentrum für Menschenrechte und Demokratie- ETC Graz); Peace Office Graz (Friedensbüro); Omega-Transcultural Center for Mental and Physical Health and Integration; Pro Health–African Initiative for Promoting Health; XENOS – Organization for the Promotion of Socio-Cultural Diversity and Zebra–Intercultural Counseling and Therapy Center.

Graz is a university city. There are many international students studying in Graz. Several counseling centers have been established for their support. The Afro-Asian Institute, the Department for International Students of the Austrian Students’ Union Graz (ÖH) ; the Department for Social Policy of the Students’ Union of the Technical University Graz (HTU Graz) and the Department for International Students at the University of Music and Performing Arts (ÖHKUG) provide counseling, services and advice.

Anyone who feels discriminated against in any way, regardless of the cause or the legal basis, may turn to the Anti-Discrimination Office Styria by personally reporting the incidence, by calling or by email. The friendly staff offers counseling on what you can do about it. If the situation should become threatening or even violent, please do not hesitate to turn to the police for help and place an emergency call at 133.

In questions of the peaceful coexistence of the religious communities, the Mayor of Graz is counseled by the Interreligious Council of the City of Graz (Interreligiöser Beirat). The Interreligious Council consists of representatives of the state-recognized faith communities.

EQUAL RIGHTS AND EQUAL TREATMENT OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Unfortunately there are still many barriers which are excluding people from accessing facilities and in this way are discriminatory against women, men and children with handicaps. The City of Graz offers several points of contact for persons with handicaps (see Info-box on page 84) and Graz makes continuous efforts to become barrier-free such as investing in lowered pavements, traffic lights with acoustic signals, barrier-free toilet facilities and ensuring barrier-free access to newly built municipal buildings. Many organizations in Graz offer counseling, information and support for people with handicaps. Among them are alpha nova- Services for People with Impairments, Atempo- Center for the Equalization of People with Disabilities, Youth at Work- Support, Promotion and Higher Qualification of People with Disabilities, Lebenshilfe-Services for People with Disabilities or the the Odilien- Institute for Blind and Visually Impaired People.
With the Austrian Federation of the Deaf (Österreichischer Gehörlosenbund) as well as the Styrian Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired (Steiermärkischer Blinden- und Sehbehindertenverband), there are some representative groups for people with disabilities which advocate the rights and interests of those concerned. More information on the topic of disabilities can be found in the chapter “Social Affairs”.

EQUAL RIGHTS AND EQUAL TREATMENT OF PEOPLE REGARDLESS OF THEIR SEXUAL ORIENTATION
As of January 1, 2010, same-sex couples have the possibility to contract a registered partnership at City Hall. (See also chapter “Life situations & Social Affairs.”) Support for people, who feel discriminated against on the grounds of their sexual orientation and would like to have counseling, is offered by the organization Rosalila Pantherinnen, Annenstraße 26, Tel.: +43 316 36 66 01, E-Mail: info@homo.at, homo.at.

INFORMATION AND PARTICIPATION
The Office for Citizens’ Participation (Referat für BürgerInnenbeteiligung) organizes events on projects and plans for the City of Graz, but also for interest groups and individually active citizens. In this way the citizens of Graz have a say in the planning stages of projects of the City of Graz. Citizens who want to start new initiatives can receive counseling on how to go about it, can present themselves on a dedicated website free of charge in order to strengthen their capacity for political participation. Information on the offers and services of the City of Graz can also be found at the website: graz.at and in the Citizens’ Information „BIG“ respectively.

Graz has a lot to offer in the field of arts and culture (European Cultural Capital 2003; the historic Old Town and the castle Schloss Eggenberg have been awarded UNESCO World Heritage status). Graz owes its cultural significance to many contributions such as the buildings of the Italian architects and craftsmen and -women or the artistic influences and contributions of migrants in the course of the centuries or the scientific achievements of Johannes Kepler or Nicola Tesla.

Information on the historic sites and contemporary architecture can be found at Graz Tourism and on its website at: graztourism.at. In the cultural sector there are the major performance venues such as the Graz Opera and the Graz Theatre, the Graz Joanneum Universal Museum as well as an extremely active, diverse and creative "cultural independent scene." kultur.graz.at

THEATRE, CABARET
The Theatre Holding Graz/Styria GmbH has several venues: The Graz Opera and the Graz Theatre, the Children and Youth Theatre “Next Liberty,” the “Orpheum,” “Dom im Berg” and the Schlossberg stage “Kasematten”. In addition the independent scene proudly presents many professional theatre initiatives such as Theater im Bahnhof, TaO! – Theater am Orteinplatz, TAL – Theater am Lend, Mezzanin Theater, Theater im Keller, THEATER MeRZ, Drama Graz, the Theater t’ eig, „follow the rabbit“ and many more. The so-called “Different Theatre” (Das andere Theater) runs the service of renting out rehearsal space to independent theatre groups and their productions for theatre practices. This service is financed by the City of Graz. It also serves as an important information platform for the whole theatre scene. (dasanderetheater.at).

MUSIC
Within the Theatre Holding Graz/Styria GmbH the Graz Opera and the Graz Venues (Grazer Spielstätten GmbH) are active in the field of music. But also at other locations and venues, Graz stages a wide range of music festivals and concerts with works of all epochs and genres such as the Styriarte (styriarte.com) or the Summer Academy of the American Institute for Musical Studies (AIMS) which have been taking place for decades and which contribute to the cultural diversity of Graz. In the field of Jazz, Graz can be proud to have such outstanding international renowned groups, artists and venues as the Jazz Big Band Graz, Stockwerk Jazz or the Royal Garden Jazz Club which showcase the variety. The Jazz scene in Graz has united at: grazjazz.at. With the House of Music and Music Drama, MUMUTH the Graz University of Music and Performing Arts (KUG) has created a special stage for high-quality artistic productions and interdisciplinary events. Venues of contemporary and pop music are the Postgarage, the ppc, the Generalmusikdirektion and others as well as the internationally renowned music festival "Elevate"... Internationally renowned music festivals are, for instance, Elevate and Spring.

LITERATURE
The City of Graz owes its positive literary reputation and image to a group of writers who were active in the Forum Stadtpark in the 1960s. The House of Literature (Literaturhaus) offers many possibilities for contemporary writers. A variety of literary magazines and literature journals is published in Graz: „Manuskripte“, „Sterz“, „Lichtungen“, „Perspektive“, „Schreibkraft“. Every year dozens of applications are placed for the Writer in Residence-Scholarship (StadtschreiberIn-Stipendium).

DANCE, DANCE THEATRE
This genre has many activities and events to offer ranging from the Opera Ballet to off-festivals of the „independent scene“. The international Theatre Workshop (Internationale Bühnenwerkstatt) has been focusing on contemporary dance and dance theatre for many years. In 2010 one floor of the building of the Different Theatre was transformed to a dance stage and has since been serving as practice room for dance workshops and performances.

VISUAL ARTS, PHOTOGRAPHY, DESIGN, ARCHITECTURE
Apart from the main museums of the Joanneum Universal Museum, the museum of Contemporary Art (Kunsthaus), the Old Gallery (Alte Galerie), the New Gallery with the „Bruseum“ (Neue Galerie) and the Hall of Art and Media (Halle für Kunst und Medien) there are many more institutions in the field of visual and media arts such as the Camera Austria, the House of Architecture or the independent artists’ initiative „Schaumbad“. In addition there are many cultural initiatives such as the association for contemporary art <rotor>, the Werkstadt Graz or the Graz Art Association (Grazer Kunstverein) as well as a great variety of private galleries.
ARTS & CULTURE

FILM, MEDIA AND FREE (INDEPENDENT) RADIO STATIONS

Of great importance is the „Festival of Austrian Film – Diagonale“ (diagonale.at). Art in combination with “new techniques” and information productions can be found in the ESC. The independent radio station Radio Helsinki transmits alternative radio shows and does important documentation work in the fields of science and arts.

MOVIE THEATRES

Besides the main movie theatres there also are two repertory cinemas in Graz: the movie theatres KIZ Royal and Rechbauerkino Cinema program at uncut.at/graz.

CROSS-SECTORAL FESTIVALS AND CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS

There are many organizations which have an interdisciplinary approach. Among those are festivals such as the „Steirische Herbst“ (steirischerherbst.at), „La Strada“ (lastrada.at), new “young” festivals such as “Elevate” (elevate.at), the Hans Gross Criminal Museum as part of the new University Museum, the Diocesan Museum, the Archeological Museum and the Archeological Collections. Historic treasures may be found at the Graz Municipal- and the Styrian Provincial Archives. Graz has several museums on the topic of mobility. “FRida & freD”- the Children’s Museum and the Botanical Gardens are further attractions.

ART IN THE PUBLIC SPACE

In addition to art galleries and museums, there are numerous art productions in public places. Sociopolitical topics in a socio-historic context especially are often approached in this way. A good overview of current events in public places can be found at the websites: kultur.graz.at with „offsite Graz“, a presentation of Art in the Public Space since 1945.

LIBRARIES

The Municipal Libraries (Stadtbibliotheken; stadtbibliothek.graz), including the Media Library (Mediathek) and the Bookmobile (see also chapter „Education“) offer more than 300,000 different media. Online Guide to Arts and Culture The online „Kulturserver“- network features a cultural calendar which lists all dates and information on events and artists at cultural institutions in Graz: kultur.graz.at.

KULTURPASS

Hunger for Arts & Culture focuses on the accessibility of culture for all people. The „Kulturpass“ was designed specifically for socially disadvantaged people from low income groups and is available free of charge at all participating partner organizations. Kulturpass- holders can obtain free entrance at numerous cultural institutions which are partner organizations of this initiative. The Graz SocialCard may also be used to participate in the initiative “Hunger for Arts & Culture”.

MUSEUMS

Having undergone extensive reconstruction the Graz Joanneum Universal Museum (museum-joanneum.at) has become the second largest museum in Austria today and corresponds to state-of-the-art requirements. The museum houses many museums within. The “New Gallery” (Neue Galerie) and the “Bruseum” which is dedicated to the artist Günther Brus both exhibit contemporary art. The Multi Media Collections, the Styrian Provincial Library and the Natural History Collections are as well as hosted and on display. The following museums are dedicated to history and cultural history: The Municipal Museum Graz, the National Armory, the historic castle Schloss Eggenberg, the Styrian Folklore Museum. The “Hanns Schell Collection” (the Lock- and Key Museum), the Hans Gross Criminal Museum as part of the new University Museum, the Diocesan Museum, the Archeological Museum and the Archeological Collections. Historic treasures may be found at the Graz Municipal- and the Styrian Provincial Archives. Graz has several museums on the topic of mobility. “FRida & freD”- the Children’s Museum and the Botanical Gardens are further attractions.
Graz offers a wide range of different sports and recreation facilities directly in the city and also in the surroundings of Graz. Information can be found on the homepage of the Department of Sports of the City of Graz (Sportamt) at: graz.at/sportamt.

DISTRICT SPORTS FIELDS
The Department of Sports has made 27 sports fields, located directly and conveniently in the various districts of Graz, available to the residents of Graz. The sports fields can be used free of charge to practice various sports such as soccer, tennis, volleyball, basketball and other sports. There also are skate parks located at the Eustacchiogrounds, in the public parks Volksgarten, Am Grünanger, in St. Veit-Andritz, in Theodor-Körner-Street and in Salfeldstreet.

CHILDREN’S PLAYGROUNDS
The complete list can be found at holding-graz.at/kinderspielplaetze

PUBLIC SWIMMING POOLS
An overview on all public indoor and outdoor swimming pools and other wellness facilities of the City of Graz can be found at holding-graz.at/freizeit

HIKING BICYCLE RIDING
A hiking, walking and bicycle riding guide can be obtained free of charge from the porter at City Hall or at the Graz Tourist Office (Herrengasse 16), the Graz Service Centers and at the Department of Sports (Stadionplatz 1, Parterre) or online at graz.at/sportamt

FITNESS
So-called “Fitness-Miles” can be found in the city districts Mariahilf and St. Peter. A fitness- trail starts at the southern end of the Augarten Park. In addition, there are many running tracks with milage markers. graz.at/sportamt

BALLSPORTS
Graz has beach-volleyball courts, mini-golf courts and squash, tennis, and badminton facilities. The soccer stadium Merkur Arena is home to the soccer matches of the Austrian National Soccer League as well as international football matches.

WINTERSPORTS
In winter you can ice skate or go cross-country skiing in Graz. More detailed information at Sportamt/graz.at.

CLIMBING
There are four indoor climbing centers in Graz at, SportUNION, BLOC House Graz, Boulder Club and the City Adventure Center. Between the island in the river Mur (Murinsel) and the main bridge, there is a climbing wall. At Lake Hilmteich there is a climbing park open to the public which is often visited by school classes.

SPORTS CLUBS, SPORT ARENAS, GYMS
There is an online directory of sports clubs (online booking at: venuzle.at). Apart from the sports arenas and gyms of sports clubs further sport offers are available at the Styrian Sports Centre (Landessportzentrum) and the University sports centre for students located at Rosenhain. A list of all sports fields can be at: graz.at/sportamt/sportplaetze

LOCAL RECREATION
The parks in Graz offer a wide range of recreation possibilities. Please note that in order to protect and conserve nature, some sports and activities are not allowed in parks (. Information on the park facilities and green areas in Graz can be found at: graz.at – BürgerInnenservice – Verwaltung – Dienststellen – Grünaum und Gewässer.

SPECIAL OFFERS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE AND SENIOR CITIZENS
As an incentive to do more sports the Department of Sports organizes sporting opportunities and introductory courses free of charge during school holidays for children and adolescents living in Graz [such as swimming courses, ice skating, snowboarding and many more] at 10€ per course per child. For senior citizens (60+) there are different training and exercise offers at the Styrian Sport Centre.

SIQ! SPORT – INTEGRATION – QUALIFICATION
Integration through doing sports together- that is the innovative approach of the Caritas project SIQ!. There are sport modules, tournaments and Adventure Days (climbing, rafting, skiing, etc.) as well as the option of vocational training in the field of sports to become, for instance, a trainer, instructor or a referee.

The goal, to which the city is committed concerning senior citizens, is that all citizens can live a healthy and active life up to an advanced age. Contact point is the Office for Senior Citizens of the City of Graz.

The Geriatric Health Care Centers of the City of Graz and many health care organizations are at your service and offer a wide range of services for senior citizens. The City of Graz also provides apartments which are adequately equipped for senior citizens.

OFFICE FOR SENIOR CITIZENS
The Office for Senior Citizens is a service center for and with seniors. It offers:

- Various events such as the “Café Graz,” dance and fitness classes, memory training and a summer program
- Senior citizens with a low income are issued a “Culture-Pass” (Kulturpass), for details see: hungeraufkunstundkultur.at or call Tel.: +43 316 82 71 22.
- Issuance of the Senior Citizens’ Card (SeniorInnencard) with many reductions. The office for senior citizens will inform you on the requirements for obtaining this card. There is no income limit; however, the recipients of minimum pensions do get special reductions in some institutions.
- Help in providing cleaning services for your apartment, information about the services “Meals on Wheels” – the mobile lunch catering service and the “Lunch table” for senior citizens: Having lunch in the company of other senior citizens at an affordable price
- At the office applications for the taxi service for disabled persons (Behindertentaxi) can be made

MOBILE CARE AT HOME
Those who are in need of help in running their daily lives because of illness or other reasons may use the services of nursing care at home (Hauskrankenpflege). Certified nursing and paramedical staff as well as home care staff come to you at your home to take good care of you. The aim of this service is to allow the elderly to live at home in the environment they are used to as long as possible. The Social Welfare Department of the City of Graz (Sozialamt) has signed a contract with five care organizations in different districts of the city to provide home care to the elderly. The costs of the services available are graduated according to the financial situation of the recipients and are calculated by the care organization offering the service. Information at Tel.: +43 316 872-6421 or at: graz.at/sozialamt.

GERIATRIC HEALTH CARE CENTERS
First class medical and nursing care are offered by the Geriatric Health Care Centers of the City of Graz (Geriatrische Gesundheitszentren, GGZ): Outpatient clinic, acute geriatric care/ remobilization, geriatric clinic, intermediate care (for patients after an acute hospital stay), medical geriatrics, memory clinic for patients suffering from dementia as well as in- and out patient hospice; assisted-living services, short-term and long-term nursing care in the nursing homes „Rosenhain“ and the Center for Senior Citizens in Geidorf as well as geriatric counselling service in the nursing homes New nursing homes as a gerontopsychiatric day care center at Rosenhain are currently under construction. Over the last years the nursing homes and clinics of the Geriatric Health Care Centers have either been newly built or have undergone extensive renovation and reconstruction. The Geriatric Health Care Centers of the City of Graz accept all 60 years or older Austrians and citizens of EU-member states, as a general rule who require medium or high-level permanent care. The interdisciplinary team of the Geriatric Health Care Centers of the City of Graz (including doctors, nursing staff and therapists) decides to which appropriate nursing area a new patient is admitted. The cost of the care depends on the individual needs of the patient and other criteria (such as the amount of the care money). For your questions on geriatric care, please, contact the Infocenter (counseling available by phone Thursday from 2 PM to 5 PM; for a personal talk please, book an appointment).

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO THE COSTS OF CARE SERVICES
If the income of the patient is not sufficient to cover the cost of his/her stay in one of the nursing homes (certified by the Province of Styria), the welfare agency of the city of Graz will help to cover the cost of his/her stay in one of the nursing homes (certified by the Province of Styria), the welfare agency of the city of Graz (Sozialamt). Senior citizens under certain circumstances may receive financial assistance for assisted living, too. The cost of assisted care at home services is graduated according to the income of the recipients.

REDUCTION ON PUBLIC TRANSPORT SENIOR TICKETS/PASSES
The Graz Lines offer reduced monthly, half-yearly and yearly tickets to men and women from the age of 60 and older. The price is calculated individually and based on the amount of respective gross pension of the applicant. Tickets are available at the Mobility and Sales Center of the Graz Lines (Mobilitäts- und Vertriebscenter der Graz Linien), Jakominastraße 1.

GRAZ SOCIALCARD MOBILITY
The SocialCard, issued by the Graz Welfare Department (for criteria see chapter “Life Situations & Social Affairs”) entitles its holders as well to the “Graz SocialCard Mobility”. The SocialCard Mobility can be obtained at the Mobility and Sales Center of the Graz Lines in Jakominastraße 1. The ticket costs 50 € (and 60 € including the Schlossberg funicular), is valid for a period of 12 months from the date of issue and is non-transferable. Bring a recent passport picture with you and note that the SocialCard has to be still valid on the date of the issue of the “Graz SocialCard Mobility”! Both Senior tickets and Graz SocialCard Mobility can be used daily during operations of the Graz Lines.

APARTMENTS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS
The Welfare Department (Sozialamt) has about 370 apartments to rent which are equipped in a senior-friendly way. Applicants must be pensioners, registered and living in Graz and have to fulfill further requirements such as limited mobility. More information at the Office for Social Work of the Welfare Department (Sozialamt) at Tel. +43 316 872-6344.

COMPENSATORY ALLOWANCE
If the pension a pensioner receives is below the subsistence level, he/she can apply for the so called compensatory allowance. More detailed information can be obtained at your respective pension insurance company. Recipients of compensatory allowances are, upon application, exempt from paying prescriptions charges, the compulsory TV license fee (GIS-Gebühren) and the service charge for the Health Insurance Card (E-Card).

CARE BENEFITS
In Austria all those who, because of a long-term physical, mental or psychological impairment, need more than 60 hours of care monthly, are under certain conditions eligible to care benefits. There are seven levels of care benefits. The application has to be placed at your Pension Insurance Fund. If you do not receive a pension, please, turn to the Department 11A of the Special Department 11A of the Styrian Government (FA 11A der Steiermärkischen Landesregierung), Hofgasse 12, 8010 Graz. More information at the Office for Social Work of the Welfare Department (Sozialamt) at Tel. +43 316 872-6344.

Your general practitioner is glad to further advise you.

COUNSELING SERVICE
This Service of the Welfare Department (Sozialamt) offers counseling to all senior citizens on their social concerns and age specific questions and requests, Monday through Friday from 8 AM to 6 PM, Schmiedgasse 26, Tel. +43 316 872-6344.

SPECIFIC COUNSELING ON CARE OPTIONS
Every first Wednesday of the month those interested in home nursing services and/or institutional care in nursing homes may get professional and comprehensive counseling in the Council Office (Amtshaus), Schmiedgasse 26, 2nd floor, room 142, from 9 AM to 4 PM. Registration at Tel. +43 316 872-6421.

HELP AND ASSISTANCE FOR HOMELESS PEOPLE

Homeless people are provided with shelter at the Women’s and Men’s Emergency Shelters of the City of Graz (Frauenwohnheim, Männerwohnheim) and in the Arche 38. Homeless adolescents can turn to the Emergency Shelter for Adolescents, the so called “Schlupfhaus”. In addition to a temporary place to sleep the staff at the shelter offers counseling in personal matters and assistance in looking for a job and an apartment.

HELPFUL SERVICES FOR VICTIMS OF VIOLENCE

Violence in the family against women and children is simply unacceptable and is against the law in Austria. The police have extended authority to intervene in cases of domestic violence. There are numerous help organizations and outreach services for women and children who are at risk from violence or are even affected by violence. If you and/or your children have just been hurt or feel threatened by somebody, please, immediately call the police at Tel. 133! Until the police arrive, try to take your children and yourself out of the immediate danger zone – if possible – to some place safe such as a room you can lock or to your neighbors.

ANONYMOUS BIRTH/BABY HATCH

Mothers of newborns who are not capable of living with their children and want to give them away right after birth have two options:
- The anonymous birth at the hospital. The woman as patient does not have to

RELIGIONS
In Graz there are several faith communities, from the state recognized religions to the religious communities smaller in number and new religious-spiritual movements. Interfaith dialogue, peaceful coexistence and encounters are of great importance to the City of Graz as well as to the faith communities. All citizens are highly welcome to engage, participate and share in interfaith- and intercultural dialogue. In 2006 the Interreligious Council of the City of Graz (Interreligiöser Beirat) was founded which meets if needed and when convened by the Mayor of Graz to counsel the Mayor in questions of religious affairs. The Interreligious Council consists of representatives of the state-recognized faith communities such as currently the Roman Catholic, Old-Catholic, Protestant, Methodist, Greek Orthodox and Coptic Orthodox Churches, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormons) as well as the Muslim, Jewish and Buddhist faith communities.

MANDATORY MILITARY SERVICE
Austria has a system of mandatory military service for fit male citizens from 17 to 50 years of age. All Austrian male citizens at the age of 7 are drafted into the military service. As a first step they are ordered to an army physical examination (Stellung or Musterung). In the army physical the doctors check whether or not the men are physically and psychologically fit enough to serve in the army. Those who are classified as “fit” (and do not want to join the civilian service) are then drafted into the military service. Those men who are classified as “temporarily unable to meet standards” will be ordered to the army physical examination once again after some time has passed. Finally, those who do not meet the physical or mental standards are disqualified for military or civilian service. The basic military service lasts for six months. Men who are obligated to military service can be drafted into military service up to the age of 35. Conscientious objectors can join the civilian service (Zivildienst) as an alternative to military service which lasts nine months and can be served at various organizations. Alternatively the civilian service can be served abroad and in this case lasts twelve months or be served in a development aid program (two years). Further information at: bundesheer.at

PETS/DANGEROUS ANIMALS
The protection and the well-being of animals are regulated under the Austrian Animal Protection Act. Cruelty to animals (such as collars causing pains to animals, electroshock systems for training animals, putting animals on a chain, docking tails or ears, cutting or clipping of teeth as well as declawing), the motiveless killing of animals and the abandoning of animals are forbidden under the Animal Protection Act. If you want to keep a pet, you have to provide species-appropriate accommodation for the animal in question as well as species-appropriate nutrition and care. If the animal is sick or has an injury, you have to take it to a veterinarian. Selling animals in public places is against the law! If you keep a dog, you may have to prove your dog-keeping skills by obtaining a license within the period of a year (registration and information at the Veterinary Office Graz). In any case you have to get a dog license: you have to get a dog license: For one dog the dog license currently costs 60 Euro per year, and for each additional animal 90 Euro per year. The dog license fee is compulsory, is handled by the Department of Municipal Taxes (Abteilung für Gemeindeabgaben) and has to be paid at the latest by April 15 of every year. In case the dog dies or is given to someone else, you have to report it to the Department of Municipal Taxes within the period of one month. When selling your dog or giving it away you need to make reference to the name and address of the new dog owner in the process of unregistering. Those ignoring to register or unregister their dog risk stiff fines! Private ownership of captive wild animals, commonly referred to as „exotic pets“ is permitted for some species (such as reptiles, amphibians and certain species of birds) but has to be reported to the Veterinary Office of the City of Graz (Referat für Veterinärangelegenheiten). The keeping of... dangerous animals has to be permitted by the Veterinary Office! If you want to keep animals for breeding, you have to report to the Veterinary Office before commencing the breeding. Small and harmless pets can be carried on the bus or tram- in a suitable pet carrier; dogs must be kept on a leash and wear a mandatory muzzle. Information on dog lawns and -parks as well as on the more than 350 dispensers of bags for dog droppings can be found at: graz.at/haustiere.

If you see a stray dog with a dog tag, please, call the Department of Municipal Taxes (Abteilung für Gemeindeabgaben) Monday through Friday from 7 AM to 2 PM, Tel. +43 316 872-3440 or 3444. Outside of these open hours call the fire brigade, Tel. +43 316 872-5888. The owner of the dog can be traced by means of the number on the dog tag. If the animal is hurt or at risk, please, call the Animal Rescue of the Fire Brigade Graz, Tel. +43 316 872-5888. All dogs which are kept in Austria have to be chipped with an implanted microchip. If you want to travel abroad and take your dog, cat or ferret with you, these animals must have a microchip which is implanted on the left side of the animal’s neck by a veterinarian. The chip contains a code of numbers which in turn is registered in a central database— in this way it is easier to trace the owner of the animal should the animal have run away. In addition to the microchip, the pet needs a travel document issued by the veterinary of your choice, the so-called Pet Passport. For some countries (such as the UK and Finland) additional examinations are required. If your pet dies, you may leave the dead animal with the veterinarian. Or you may bring the animal carcass (up to the limit of max. 30 kg) to the animal carcass collection of the City of Graz, Lagergasse 158 (riverside entrance to the slaughter house).
